The terms “you” and “your” refer to all residents listed above. “You” and “Your,” regardless of whether or not specifically stated in any provision, also means occupants, family members, and guests. The terms “we,” “us,” and “our” refer to the owner listed above (or any of owner’s successors’ in interest or assigns). Written or electronic notice to or from our managers constitutes notice to or from us. If anyone else has guaranteed performance of this Lease Contract, a separate Lease Contract Guaranty for each guarantor is attached.

As stated in your application, your primary language is:

2. OCCUPANTS. The apartment will be occupied only by you and (list all other occupants not signing the Lease Contract):

No one else may occupy the apartment. Persons not listed above must not stay in the apartment for more than 3 consecutive days without our prior written consent, and no more than twice that many days in any one month. If the previous space isn’t filled in, two days per month is the limit. Upon Owner’s request, Resident shall provide in writing the name, phone number, and a copy of photo ID, of any unauthorized occupant who has occupied the premises for more than seven days in Owner’s reasonable judgment. If we claim any person is an unauthorized occupant, you must prove to us and to any court that the unauthorized person does not live at the premises.

3. LEASE TERM. The initial term of the Lease Contract begins on the 30th day of December, 2025, and ends at 11:59 p.m. the 29th day of June, 2026.

Renewal. This Lease Contract will automatically renew month-to-month unless a renewal lease or extension agreement is executed by Owner and Resident prior to the Lease term expiration, or a written notice of termination or intent to move-out has been provided in accordance with required by paragraph 46 (Move-Out Notice). Pursuant to C.R.S. § 38-12-1302, if the Lease Contract term is less than twelve (12) months, Part 13 of Title 38 Article 12 Colorado Revised Statutes does not apply. You agree that any unpaid sums or charges pursuant to this Lease Contract will carry over to any renewal lease or extension agreement. If any resident(s) vacates the premises, all remaining resident(s) agree we may require the remaining resident(s) to submit documentation confirming the remaining resident(s) continue to qualify to rent the premises before we will enter into a renewal lease or lease extension agreement with the remaining resident(s).

4. SECURITY DEPOSIT. Unless modified by addenda, the total security deposit at the time of execution of this Lease Contract for all residents in the apartment is $ 900.00, due on or before the date this Lease Contract is signed. Regardless of the purpose of any Security Deposit, we may apply any deposit to any sum owed by you. If we apply any portion of the Security Deposit for any purpose while you are in possession of the premises, you shall promptly pay us upon demand the amount necessary to restore the Security Deposit to the original amount. Unless prohibited by law, you agree to waive your rights to any interest earned on your Security Deposit. You agree to waive your right for us to use cash basis accounting for the Security Deposit accounting. Owner’s management company or representative, whose address appears at the end of this Lease Contract, shall initially hold your Security Deposit, subject to transfer upon sale or a change in management, as authorized by law. If Owner sells the community, upon Owner’s compliance with the applicable law, you agree to look solely to any successor owner, or any successor owner’s agent, broker or manager, as the case may be, for satisfaction of all claims relating to said Security Deposit, and shall not look to Owner. Upon a sale or change in management, with timely notice by mail to you, you specifically consent to and authorize the transfer of your Security Deposit to a successor owner or management company. Regardless of anything to the contrary in this Lease Contract, upon a resident’s death, the resident (or the resident’s estate) agrees to pay damages in accordance with this section. A deceased resident is liable for all rent that was past due at the time of death. Liability for future rent is determined by when the premises are vacated after notice, or by operation of law. A deceased resident’s liability for future rent is limited to ten (10) business days if notice of death is given to us and the premises are vacated within ten (10) business days of that notice. If notice is given but the premises are not vacated within ten (10) business days, the resident is liable for rent until the premises are vacated. If the premises are not vacated and notice is not given, the deceased resident shall not be liable for more than thirty (30) days of future rent after the date of death. For any period, we agree not to claim both past due rent and future rent.

In addition to rent, if set forth in this Lease Contract and otherwise not prohibited, a deceased resident is liable for all amounts that we may lawfully deduct from a Security Deposit pursuant to C.R.S. § 38-12-103(1)(b). The deceased resident’s liability for these amounts includes all amounts due from the time of the resident’s death through surrender of the premises, whether by notice and vacating, or by operation of law.

We may retain the Security Deposit or any associated damage deposit sufficient to cover costs related to damage caused by the death of a resident, and for any other lawful amounts or damages. Upon death, the resident is not liable for the repayment of any lease concessions.

5. KEYS. You will be provided 2 apartment key(s), 2 mailbox key(s), 0 FOB(s), and/or 0 other access device(s) for access to the building and amenities at no additional cost at move-in. If the key, FOB, or other access device is lost or becomes damaged during your tenancy or is not returned or is returned damaged when you move out, you will be responsible for the costs for the replacement and/or repair of the same.

6. RENT AND CHARGES. Unless modified by addenda, you will pay $ 1699.00 per month for rent, payable in advance and without demand:

- ☒ at the on-site manager’s office, or
- ☒ at our online payment site, or
- ☒ at WIPS

or at any such other place we may designate in writing.

Rent is due (Check One):

- ☒ on or before the 1st day of the month.
- ☐ on or before the _____ day of the month prior to the month for which rent is due.
- ☐ on or before the last day of the month prior to the month for which rent is due.

(If no box is checked rent is due on or before the 1st day of the month).

You must pay your rent on or before the due date with no grace period, and we can statutorily demand you pay your rent on the day it is due or any time after. Cash is unacceptable without our prior written permission. If we have a dropbox, lockbox, or any other unattended rent drop (collectively “dropbox”) for rent payments, the dropbox is for your convenience only. You agree that any payment placed into a rent dropbox is not delivered to us unless your payment is in the dropbox when opened by us. Until any payment put in the dropbox is delivered to us, you bear the risk of loss, including by theft, of any payments, put in the dropbox. In the event you deliver a payment(s) to us, and said payment(s) is stolen from us, regardless of fault, you agree to promptly cooperate with us in tracing or replacing the stolen funds. You must not withhold or offset rent unless authorized by statute. We may, at our option, require at any time that you pay all rent and other sums in cash, certified or cashier’s check, money order, electronic payment, or one monthly check rather than multiple checks, and we may charge you a fee for paying your rent in cash, certified or cashier’s check, money order or electronic payment if we also provide you with an option to pay your rent at no charge. At our discretion, we may convert any and all checks via the Automated Clearing House (ACH) system for the purposes of collecting payment. Rent is not considered accepted if the payment/ACH is rejected, does not clear, or is stopped for any reason. Rent is late if not paid on the day it is due. If you don’t pay all rent and other amounts due within seven (7) calendar days of it being late, you’ll pay a late charge. Your late charge will be (check one): ☐ a flat rate of $ 79.95 or ☒ 5 % (not to exceed 5%) of the past due rent payment. If no boxes are checked or amounts are filled in, the late charge will be $50 or 5% of the past due rent payment, whichever is greater. Imposition of a late charge is not a grace period or a waiver of our right to demand rent on its due date, but an incentive for you to pay on time. If you pay late, you agree to pay the rent due plus all applicable late charges incurred through the date of payment regardless of whether we made a written demand for the rent. You’ll also pay a charge of $20 or actual charges, whichever is higher, for each returned check or rejected electronic payment, plus a late charge. If you are delinquent paying any monetary amount, including paying us your initial move-in charges and deposit(s), you will be in material violation of the Lease Contract and, all remedies under this Lease Contract and at law will be authorized, including eviction. You will also owe us all sheriff’s fees we incur if you are evicted. You agree that any payment you make to us via an ACH, debit or credit card transaction is for your convenience, and you agree to pay the stated fee imposed by the online payment site for each ACH, debit or credit card transaction for this convenience.

Statutory Right to Cure. Pursuant to Colorado law, you have the right to pay all amounts due prior to a court entering a judgment for possession if you are being evicted for non-payment of rent. If you exercise your statutory right to pay, we only have to accept your payment if you fully pay all amounts due according to the eviction notice, as well as any rent that remains due under this Agreement.

If you exercise your right to pay, you agree to pay us in certified funds at our onsite leasing office, if any, during business hours, or as follows:

All rent due, plus late fees and filing fees, if applicable.

Prorated Rent and Other Charges. If this Lease Contract commences on a date other than the FIRST day of the month, the Rent and any other charges for the partial month shall be due upon execution of the Lease Contract. Notwithstanding any preliminary calculations to the contrary. Prorated rent of $ 109.61 is due for the period of December 30, 2025 to December 31, 2025.

7. UTILITIES. We’ll pay for the following items, if checked:
- ☐ water ☐ gas ☐ electricity ☐ master antenna
- ☐ wastewater ☐ trash ☐ cable TV
- ☐ other _____

You’ll pay for all other utilities, related deposits, and any charges, fees, or services on such utilities. You must not allow utilities to be disconnected—including disconnection for not paying your bills—until the Lease term or renewal period ends or you vacate the premises, whichever is later. Cable channels that are provided may be changed during the Lease Contract term if the change applies to all residents. Utilities may be used only for normal household purposes and must not be wasted. If your electricity is ever interrupted, you must use only battery-operated lighting. If any utilities are submetered for the apartment, or prorated by an allocation formula, we will attach an addendum to this Lease Contract in compliance with state agency rules or city ordinance.

8. INSURANCE. We do not maintain insurance to cover your personal property or personal injury. We are not responsible to any resident, guest, or occupant for damage or loss of personal property or personal injury from (including but not limited to) fire, smoke, rain, flood, mold, water and pipe leaks, hail, ice, snow, lightning, wind, explosions, earthquake, interruption of utilities, theft, hurricane, negligence of other residents, occupants, or invited/uninvited guests or vandalism unless otherwise required by law.

We ☒ require ☐ do not require you to get your own insurance for losses to your personal property or injuries due to theft, fire, water damage, pipe leaks and the like. If no box is checked, renter’s insurance is not required.

In addition, we urge all residents, and particularly those residing in coastal areas, areas near rivers, and areas prone to flooding, to obtain flood insurance. Renter’s insurance may not cover damage to your property due to flooding. A flood insurance resource which may be available includes the National Flood Insurance Program managed by the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA).

Additionally, you are [check one] ☒ required to purchase personal liability insurance ☐ not required to purchase personal liability insurance. If no box is checked, personal liability insurance is not required. If required, failure to maintain personal liability insurance throughout your tenancy, including any renewal periods and/or lease extensions may be a breach of this Lease Contract and may result in the termination of tenancy and eviction and/or any other remedies as provided by this Lease Contract or state law.

9. LOCKS AND LATCHES. Keyed lock(s) will be rekeyed after the prior resident moves out. The rekeying will be done before you move into your apartment.

You may at any time ask us to change or rekey locks or latches during the Lease Term. We must comply with those requests, but you must pay for them, unless otherwise provided by law.

Payment for Rekeying, Repairs, Etc. You must pay for all repairs or replacements arising from misuse or damage to devices by you or your family, occupants, or guests during your occupancy. You may be required to pay in advance. Otherwise, you must pay immediately after the work is completed.

Special Provisions and “What If” Clauses

10. SPECIAL PROVISIONS. The following special provisions and any addenda or written rules furnished to you at or before signing will become a part of this Lease Contract and will supersede any conflicting provisions of this printed Lease Contract form.

See Additional Special Provisions

See any additional special provisions.

11. EARLY MOVE-OUT. (Check only (1) one box).

- ☐ BOX 1: FUTURE RENT:
If this box is checked, you'll be liable to us for actual costs and losses we incur if you:
(1) move out without paying rent in full for the entire Lease Contract term or renewal period; or
(2) move out at our demand because of your default; or
(3) are judicially evicted.

Costs and losses include, but are not limited to, advertising, showing apartments, utilities for showing, checking prospects, office overhead, marketing costs, locator-service fees, future or past-due rent; repayment of concessions or discounts; charges for cleaning, repairing, repainting, or unreturned keys; or other sums due. You will also pay, repay, or refund any concessions and move in discounts in the total amount set forth in the Lease Contract or Lease Addendum for Rent Concession or Other Rent Discount, as well as any other charges or amounts due under the Lease Contract, including but not limited to unpaid utilities, cleaning charges, or any physical damages to the premises.

- ☒ BOX 2: LIQUIDATED DAMAGES:
If this box is checked, it replaces paragraph 11 Box 1 (Future Rent) in its entirety and you'll be liable to us for liquidated damages in the amount set forth below if you move out without paying rent in full for the entire Lease Contract term or renewal period under any circumstances, including but not limited to if you default and we either request you move out or you are evicted.

You agree to pay us for liquidated damages in the amount of $ 1699.00 (if no dollar amount is filled in, the liquidated damages amount is equivalent to one month's rent) as well as pay, repay, or refund any concessions and move in discounts in the total amount set forth in the Lease Contract or Lease Addendum for Rent Concession or Other Rent Discount. You agree that the liquidated damages is an amount agreed to by you in consideration of, among other things, our waiver to seek from you future rent for the entire amount of any uncompleted rental term, plus re-letting related fees, costs, and expenses. For the reasons stated and because the re-renting of the premises after you break this Lease Contract cannot be determined with any certainty, you agree that the liquidated damages amount represents a fair amount and method to allocate the numerous risks and liabilities regarding future rent and re-letting damages. You agree the liquidated damages amount only relieves you from liability for the future payment of monthly Rent and re-letting related costs and expenses, and will not under any circumstances release you for any liability to us under this Lease Contract for any other charges or amounts due under the Lease Contract, including but not limited to unpaid utilities, cleaning charges, or any physical damages to the premises, and you will at all times remain liable for said amounts or any other breaches of the Lease Contract. We will retain all remedies for your breaches and other non-compliance with the Lease Contract. You will not be released from liability on this Lease Contract for any reason whatsoever unless specifically released by us in writing.

If neither BOX 1 nor BOX 2 above is checked, BOX 1 FUTURE RENT shall apply in the event of your early move out.

Domestic Survivors - Right to Terminate. Legally eligible Domestic Survivors may terminate this Lease Contract without penalty in accordance with the law. You may initiate a Lease Contract termination process by submitting written notice under C.R.S. § 38-12-402(2)(a). However, termination is not effective unless we receive qualifying documentation from you, either with your notice or within 7 days of our written request.

12. REIMBURSEMENT. Upon demand you must promptly reimburse us for loss, damage, government fines, or cost of repairs or service in the apartment community incurred by us due to a violation of the Lease Contract or rules, improper use, or negligence by you or your guests or occupants. Regardless of whether specifically stated in any applicable provision of this Lease Contract, you are always liable to us for any damage caused by you, and any occupant, child, family, member, guest, invitee, licensee, or any other person that comes on the community because of you. Unless the damage or wastewater stoppage is due to our negligence, we're not liable for—and you must pay for—repairs, replacement costs, and damage to the following that result from you or your invitees, guests, or occupants' negligence or intentional acts: (1) damage to doors, windows, or screens; (2) damage from windows or doors left open; and (3) damage from wastewater stoppages caused by improper objects in lines exclusively serving your apartment. We may require payment at any time, including advance payment of repairs for which you're liable. Delay in demanding sums you owe is not a waiver.

13. PROPERTY LEFT IN APARTMENT.

Removal After Surrender, Abandonment, or Eviction. We or law officers may remove and/or store all property remaining in the apartment or in common areas (including any vehicles you or any occupant or guest owns or uses) if you are judicially evicted or if you surrender or abandon the apartment (see definitions in paragraph 51 (Deposit Return, Surrender and Abandonment)).

Storage. We may store, but have no duty to store, property removed after judicial eviction, surrender, or abandonment of the apartment. You must pay reasonable charges for our packing, removing, storing, and selling any property. We have a lien on all property removed and stored after surrender, abandonment, or judicial eviction for all sums you owe.

Redemption. If we've removed and stored property after surrender, abandonment, or judicial eviction, you may redeem only by paying all sums you owe, including rent, late charges, early move-out charges, storage, damages, etc. We may return redeemed property at the place of storage, the management office, or the apartment (at our option). We may require payment by cash, money order, or certified check.

Disposition or Sale. If you abandon the premises or vacate the premises upon the expiration or termination of the Lease Contract or for any reason while leaving personal property within the premises, including any parking spaces, garages, or storage units, you intentionally, specifically and irrevocably waive all title and interest you have in such property and grant us full authority to immediately dispose of the property without notice, court order, accountability, or liability. You agree to indemnify us, our employees and representatives against any claim or cost for any damages or expenses with regard to the removal, disposal or storage of any property, including attorneys' fees and costs regardless of who makes a claim against us or any other indemnified party in connection with our removal of any property. We may throw away or give to a charitable organization all items of personal property that are: (1) left in the apartment after surrender or abandonment; or (2) left outside more than 1 hour, or any period legally required, after a writ of restitution is executed, following a judicial eviction. Animals removed after surrender, abandonment, or eviction may be kenneled or turned over to local authorities or humane societies. Property not thrown away or given to charity may be disposed of as permitted by law.

14. FAILING TO PAY MOVE-IN CHARGES. If you don't pay the first month's rent, all or any other sums due and owing when or before the Lease Contract begins, all remedies pursuant to this Lease Contract and at law will apply. We also may end your right of occupancy and recover damages, early move-out charges, attorney's fees, court costs, and other lawful charges. Our rights and remedies under paragraphs 11 (Early Move-Out) and 34 (Default by Resident) apply to acceleration under this paragraph.

15. RENT INCREASES AND LEASE CONTRACT CHANGES. No rent increases or Lease Contract changes are allowed before the initial Lease Contract term ends, except for changes allowed by any special provisions in paragraph 10 (Special Provisions), by a written addendum or amendment signed by you and us, or by reasonable changes of apartment rules allowed under paragraph 19 (Community Policies or Rules). If, at least 5 days before the advance notice deadline referred to in paragraph 3 (Lease Term), we give you written notice of rent increases or Lease Contract changes effective when the Lease Contract term or renewal period ends, this Lease Contract will automatically continue month-to-month with the increased rent or Lease changes. Unless we serve you with a Notice to Terminate the Lease Contract in accordance with applicable law or you vacate the premises on the last day, the new modified Lease Contract will begin on the date stated in the notice without necessity of your signature. If you are on month-to-month status under paragraph 3 (Lease Term), we can raise your rent or change Lease terms in accordance with this paragraph and with the law.

16. DELAY OF OCCUPANCY. If occupancy is or will be delayed for construction, repairs, cleaning, remediation of an uninhabitable unit, or a previous resident's holding over, we're not responsible for the delay. The Lease Contract will remain in force subject to: (1) abatement of rent on a daily basis during delay; and (2) your right to terminate as set forth below. Your termination notice must be in writing. After termination, you are entitled only to a refund of deposit(s) and any rent paid. Rent abatement or Lease Contract termination does not apply if delay is for cleaning or repairs that don't prevent you from occupying the apartment, or if we have offered you substitute premises of comparable location and quality at no additional cost to you.

If there is a delay and we haven't given notice of delay as set forth immediately below, you may terminate up to the date when the apartment is ready for occupancy, but not later.

- (1) If we give written notice to any of you when or after the initial term as set forth in Paragraph 3 (Lease Term)—and the notice states that occupancy has been delayed because of construction or a previous resident's holding over, and that the apartment will be ready on a specific date—you may terminate the Lease Contract within 3 days of the date on the notice, but not later.
- (2) If we give written notice to any of you before the initial term as set forth in Paragraph 3 (Lease Term) and the notice states that construction delay is expected and that the apartment will be ready for you to occupy on a specific date, you may terminate the Lease Contract within 7 days of the date on the notice, but not later. The readiness date is considered the new initial term as set forth in Paragraph 3 (Lease Term) for all purposes. This new date may not be moved to an earlier date unless we and you agree.

- 17. AD VALOREM TAXES/FEES AND CHARGES. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, if, during the term of this Agreement, any locality, city, state, or Federal Government imposes upon us, any fee, charge, or tax, which is related to or charged by the number of occupants, or by the apartment unit itself, such that we are charged a fee, charge, or tax, based upon your use or occupancy of the apartment, we may add this charge during the term of the Lease Contract, with thirty (30) days advance written notice to you. After this written notice (the amount or approximate amount of the charge, will be included), you agree to pay the amount of the charge, tax or fee imposed upon us, as a result of your occupancy. As examples, these charges can include, but are not limited to: any charges we receive for any zoning violation, sound, noise or litter charge; any charge under any nuisance or chronic nuisance type statute, 911 or other life safety, per person, or per unit charge or tax and any utility bill unpaid by you, which is then assessed to us for payment.
- 18. DISCLOSURE RIGHTS. If someone requests information on you or your rental history for law-enforcement, governmental, or business purposes, we may provide it.

While You're Living in the Apartment

19. COMMUNITY POLICIES OR RULES. You and all guests and occupants must comply with any written apartment rules and community policies, including instructions for care of our property. Our rules are part of this Lease Contract. Your violation or breach of our rules is a default for which we may exercise any remedy. We may make reasonable changes to written rules, effective upon distribution to all applicable units without prior notice to you, if they do not change dollar amounts on page 1 of this Lease Contract. We may change rules without prior notice to you and regardless of whether you acknowledge receiving or consenting to any change to any rule at any time.

20. LIMITATIONS ON CONDUCT. You will use the premises as your principal residence, solely as a private residential household, not for any unlawful purposes, and or for any other purpose whatsoever. You, your occupants, and guests will show due consideration for others by not permitting, committing, or suffering any conduct, disorderly or otherwise, noise, vibration, odor, or other nuisance whatsoever having a tendency to annoy or disturb others and to use no machinery, device, or any other apparatus which would damage the premises or annoy others; and interfering with, disturbing, or threatening the rights, comfort, health, safety, convenience, quiet enjoyment, management, and use of the community by us, other residents and occupants and any of their guests, agents, invitees, or the general public. You, and any occupants, and guests may not disrupt or interfere with our business operations, or communicate with us in a rude, hostile, or unreasonable manner, including times, manner and amount of communications, or injure our reputation by making bad faith allegations against us to others. We are the sole judge of acceptable conduct.

The apartment and other areas reserved for your private use must be kept clean and free of trash, garbage, and other debris. Trash must be disposed of at least weekly in appropriate receptacles and compliance with all laws. Passageways may be used only for entry or exit. You agree to keep all passageways and common areas free of obstructions such as trash, storage items, and all forms of personal property. No person shall ride or allow bikes, skateboards, or other similar objects in the passageways. Any swimming pools, saunas, spas, tanning beds, exercise rooms, storerooms, laundry rooms, and similar areas must be used with care in accordance with apartment rules and posted signs. Glass containers are prohibited in all common areas. You, your occupants, or guests may not anywhere in the apartment community: use candles or use kerosene lamps or kerosene heaters without our prior written approval; cook on balconies or outside; or solicit business or contributions. Conducting any kind of business (including child care services) in your apartment or in the apartment community is prohibited—except that any lawful business conducted “at home” by computer, mail, or telephone is permissible if customers, clients, patients, or other business associates do not come to your apartment for business purposes. We may regulate: (1) the use and appearance of patios, balconies, windows, and porches; (2) the conduct of movers and delivery persons; and (3) recreational activities in common areas. You'll be liable to us for damage caused by you or any guests or occupants.

We may limit or prohibit your right to photograph or video the common areas or others, including the use of camera/video doorbells and drones. We may limit you to communicating with us only in writing if you communicate with us in a rude, hostile, or unreasonable manner. We may exclude from your apartment or the apartment community, guests or others who, in our reasonable judgment, have been violating the law, violating this Lease Contract or any apartment rules, or disturbing other residents, neighbors, visitors, or owner representatives. We may deny any person access to the premises, including by changing the locks, if any court or legal order restrains or bars said person from the premises. We may also exclude from any outside area or common area a person who refuses to show photo identification or refuses to identify himself or herself as a resident, occupant, or guest of a specific resident in the community.

You agree to notify us if you or any occupants are convicted of any felony, or misdemeanor involving a controlled substance, violence to another person or destruction of property. You also agree to notify us if you or any occupant registers as a sex offender in any state. Informing us of criminal convictions or sex offender registry does not waive our right to evict you.

21. PROHIBITED CONDUCT. You, your occupants or guests, or the guests of any occupants, shall not engage in, commit, or permit criminal or unlawful activities whether or not such unlawful activities occur in, near, off, or about the premises, including but not limited to the manufacturing, delivering, possessing with intent to deliver, or otherwise possessing a controlled substance (as defined by any law), or drug paraphernalia; engaging in or threatening violence, possessing a weapon prohibited by state law; discharging a firearm in the apartment community; displaying a knife in the common area, displaying a firearm or possessing a loaded firearm in the common area, excluding law enforcement personnel; displaying or possessing any other weapon in the common area; storing anything in closets having gas appliances, tampering with utilities or telecommunications; or bringing hazardous materials into the apartment community. You and your occupants shall not register the address of the premises or any part of the apartment community on any list of registered sex offenders or similar list or compilation. You agree that any act set forth in this paragraph constitutes a material breach of this Lease Contract. Upon any violation of the paragraph by you, we may terminate your right to occupancy upon three days' notice to quit.

22. PARKING. We may regulate the time, manner, and place of parking all cars, trucks, motorcycles, bicycles, boats, trailers, and recreational vehicles by anyone. We may have unauthorized or illegally parked vehicles towed under an appropriate statute or booted. Towing may occur without notice if permitted by state law. We may relocate any vehicle as necessary to complete repairs in the Community. A vehicle is unauthorized or illegally parked in the apartment community if it:

- (1) has a flat tire or other condition rendering it inoperable; or
- (2) is on jacks, blocks or has wheel(s) missing; or
- (3) has no license plate or no registration and/or inspection sticker; or
- (4) takes up more than one parking space; or
- (5) belongs to a resident or occupant who has surrendered or abandoned the apartment; or
- (6) is parked in a marked handicap space without the legally required handicap insignia; or
- (7) is parked in space marked for manager, staff, or guest at the office; or
- (8) blocks another vehicle from exiting; or
- (9) is parked in a fire lane or designated “no parking” area; or
- (10) is parked in a space marked for other resident(s) or unit(s); or
- (11) is parked on the grass, sidewalk, or patio; or

- (12) blocks garbage trucks from access to a dumpster; or
- (13) belongs to a resident and is parked in a visitor or retail parking space; or
- (14) is not displaying a parking permit, if required by landlord.

23. RELEASE OF RESIDENT. Unless you’re entitled to terminate your tenancy under paragraphs 10 (Special Provisions), 16 (Delay in Occupancy), 32 (Responsibilities of Owner), or 45 (Move-Out Notice), or applicable law, you won’t be released from this Lease Contract for any reason—including but not limited to voluntary or involuntary school withdrawal or transfer, voluntary or involuntary job transfer, marriage, separation, divorce, reconciliation, loss of co-residents, loss of employment, or bad health.

24. MILITARY PERSONNEL CLAUSE. All parties to this Lease Contract agree to comply with any federal law, including, but not limited to the Service Member’s Civil Relief Act, or any applicable state law(s), if you are seeking to terminate this Lease Contract and/or subsequent renewals and/or Lease Contract extensions under the rights granted by such laws.

25. RESIDENT SAFETY AND PROPERTY LOSS. You and all occupants and guests must exercise due care for your own and others’ safety and security, especially in the use of smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, keyed deadbolt locks, keyless bolting devices, window latches, and other access control devices.

Smoke and Carbon Monoxide Detectors. We’ll furnish smoke and carbon monoxide detectors only if required by statute, and we’ll test them and provide working batteries when you first take possession. After that, you must test the smoke detectors and the carbon monoxide detectors on a regular basis, you must pay for and replace batteries as needed, unless the law provides otherwise. We may replace dead or missing batteries at your expense, without prior notice to you. You must immediately report smoke and carbon monoxide detectors malfunctions to us. Neither you nor others may disable neither the smoke nor carbon monoxide detectors. If you disable or damage the smoke and carbon monoxide detectors, or fail to replace a dead battery or report known smoke or carbon monoxide detectors malfunctions to us, and if your action or inaction causes loss, damage, or fines from fire, smoke, or water to us or others, you will be liable for such loss, damage, or fines.

Casualty Loss. We’re not liable to any resident, guest, or occupant for personal injury or damage or loss of personal property from any cause, including but not limited to: fire, smoke, rain, flood, water and pipe leaks, mold, hail, ice, snow, lightning, wind, explosions, earthquake, interruption of utilities, theft, or vandalism unless otherwise required by law. We have no duty to remove any ice, sleet, or snow but may remove any amount with or without notice. You must maintain appropriate or reasonable climate control, ventilation, and lighting in the unit based on the circumstances. During freezing weather, you must ensure that the temperature in the apartment is sufficient to make sure that the pipes do not freeze (the appropriate temperature will depend upon weather conditions and the size and layout of your unit). If the pipes freeze or any other damage is caused by your failure to properly maintain the heat in your apartment, you’ll be liable for damage to our and other’s property. If you ask our representatives to perform services not contemplated in this Lease Contract, you will indemnify us and hold us harmless from all liability for those services.

Crime or Emergency. Dial 911 or immediately call local medical emergency, fire, or police personnel in case of accident, fire, smoke, or suspected criminal activity, or other emergency involving imminent harm. You should then contact our representative. Unless otherwise provided by law, we’re not liable to you or any guests or occupants for injury, damage, or loss to person or property caused by criminal conduct of other persons, including theft, burglary, assault, vandalism, or other crimes. We’re not obliged to furnish security personnel, security lighting, security gates or fences, or other forms of security. If we provide any access control devices or security measures upon the property, they are not a guarantee to prevent crime or to reduce the risk of crime on the property. You agree that no access control or security measures can eliminate all crime and that you will not rely upon any provided access control or security measures as a warranty or guarantee of any kind. We’re not responsible for obtaining criminal-history checks on any residents, occupants, guests, or contractors in the apartment community. If you or any occupant or guest is affected by a crime, you must make a written report to our representative and to the appropriate local law-enforcement agency. You also must furnish us with the law-enforcement agency’s incident report number upon request.

26. CONDITION OF THE PREMISES AND ALTERATIONS.

Every tenant is entitled to safe and healthy housing under Colorado’s warranty of habitability and a landlord is prohibited by law from retaliating against a tenant in any manner for reporting unsafe conditions in the tenant’s residential premises, requesting repairs, or seeking to enjoy the tenant’s right to safe and healthy housing. Except for conditions materially affecting the health or safety of ordinary persons, you accept the apartment, fixtures, and furniture as is. To the extent not prohibited by law, we disclaim all implied warranties or covenants. We disclaim that the premises are suitable for you to “work at home” and we are not responsible for any loss of income you, your occupants, guests or invitees may incur resulting from or related to an inability to work in the premises for any reason, including but not limited to noise, disruptions or repairs. We are not responsible for any violation of the implied covenant of quiet enjoyment that is committed by a third party acting beyond our reasonable control. You’ll be given an Inventory and Condition form on or before move-in. You must note on the form all defects or damage and return it to our representative. Otherwise, everything will be considered to be in a clean, safe, and good working condition.

You must use customary diligence in maintaining and not damaging the apartment and not damaging or littering the common areas. Unless authorized by statute or by us in writing, you must not perform any repairs, painting, wallpapering, carpeting, electrical changes, or otherwise alter our property. No holes or stickers are allowed inside or outside the apartment. But we’ll permit a reasonable number of small nail holes for hanging pictures on sheetrock walls and in grooves of wood-paneled walls, unless our rules state otherwise. No water furniture, washing machines, additional phone or TV-cable outlets, alarm systems, or lock changes, additions, or rekeying is permitted unless statutorily allowed or we’ve consented in writing. You may install a satellite dish or antenna provided you sign our satellite dish or antenna lease addendum which complies with reasonable restrictions allowed by federal law. You agree not to alter, damage, or remove our property, including alarm systems, smoke or carbon monoxide detectors, furniture, telephone and cable TV wiring, screens, locks, and access control devices. When you move in, we’ll supply light bulbs for fixtures we furnish, including exterior fixtures operated from inside the apartment; after that, you’ll replace them at your expense with bulbs of the same type and wattage. Your improvements to the apartment (whether or not we consent) become ours unless we agree otherwise in writing.

27. REQUESTS, REPAIRS, AND MALFUNCTIONS. IF YOU OR ANY OCCUPANT NEEDS TO SEND A NOTICE OR REQUEST—FOR EXAMPLE, FOR REPAIRS, INSTALLATIONS, SERVICES, OR SECURITY-RELATED MATTERS—IT MUST BE SUBMITTED THROUGH EITHER THE ONLINE TENANT/MAINTENANCE PORTAL, OR SIGNED AND IN WRITING AND DELIVERED TO OUR DESIGNATED REPRESENTATIVE (except in case of fire, smoke, gas, explosion, overflowing sewage, uncontrollable running water, electrical shorts, or crime in progress). Our written notes on your oral request do not constitute a written request from you.

You can mail or personally deliver written notice of an uninhabitable condition to the following address:

by email at the following email address:

or through our online tenant portal or platform with a web address of:

El inquilino puede enviar por correo o entregar personalmente un aviso por escrito de una condición inhabitable a la siguiente dirección:

o por correo electrónico a:

o a través de nuestro portal o plataforma para inquilinos en línea por nuestra página de web

Our complying with or responding to any oral request regarding security or non-security matters, or statutory matters, doesn't waive the strict requirement for written notices under this Lease Contract and as required by law. You must immediately notify us in writing of: water leaks; moisture accumulation; mold; electrical problems; malfunctioning lights; broken or missing locks or latches; and other conditions that pose a hazard to property, health, or safety. You must cooperate with us to complete repairs to the premises, which may include your temporary removal of your personal property or your absence from the premises. We may change or install utility lines or equipment serving the apartment if the work is done reasonably without substantially increasing your utility costs. We may turn off equipment and interrupt utilities as needed to avoid property damage or to perform work. If utilities malfunction or are damaged by fire, water, or similar cause, you must notify our representative immediately. If other equipment malfunctions, you must notify our representative as soon as possible on a business day. We'll act with customary diligence to make repairs and reconnections. Rent will not abate in whole or in part except as permitted by law.

28. ANIMALS. Unless otherwise provided under federal, state, or local law, no animals (including mammals, reptiles, birds, fish, rodents, and insects) are allowed, even temporarily, anywhere in the apartment or apartment community unless we've so authorized in writing. You must remove an illegal or unauthorized animal within 24 hours of notice from us, or you will be considered in default of this Lease Contract. If we allow an animal as a pet, you must execute a separate animal addendum which may require additional deposits, fees or other charges, and complete any required, online registration for the animal. An animal deposit is considered a general security deposit. We will authorize an assistance animal for a disabled person. When allowed by applicable laws, before we authorize an assistance animal, if the disability is not readily apparent, we may request a written statement from a qualified professional verifying the disability-related need for the assistance animal. If we authorize an assistance animal, we may ask you to execute a separate animal and/or assistance animal addendum and complete an online registration for the animal. Animal deposits, fees or other charges will not be required for an assistance animal needed due to disability, including an emotional support or service animal, as authorized under federal, state, or local law. You must not feed stray or wild animals.

If you or any guest or occupant violates animal restrictions (with or without your knowledge), you'll be subject to charges, damages, eviction, and other remedies provided in this Lease Contract. If an animal has been in the apartment at any time during your term of occupancy (with or without our consent), we'll charge you for defleaing, deodorizing, and shampooing. We may remove any unauthorized, neglected, or abandoned animal by (1) leaving, in a conspicuous place in the apartment, a 24-hour written notice of intent to remove the animal, and (2) following the procedures of paragraph 29 (When We May Enter). We may keep or kennel the animal or turn it over to a humane society or local authority. When keeping or kenneling an animal, we won't be liable for loss, harm, sickness, or death of the animal unless due to our negligence. We'll return the animal to you upon request if it has not already been turned over to a humane society or local authority. You must pay for the animal's reasonable care and kenneling charges.

29. WHEN WE MAY ENTER. You shall allow us access to the premises and we shall have the right to reenter the premises at all reasonable times, unless modified by applicable law, for any legitimate or necessary purpose which we determine in our sole discretion, including but not limited to, inspecting, providing necessary services, making necessary repairs or improvements, and showing the premises to prospective residents or to other persons having a legitimate or necessary interest. We shall always have the right to reenter the premises without notice, with your consent or request. Absent consent or request from you, we may reenter with notice when practical, and without notice when impractical, or with required legal notice if applicable. Any entry by us shall not constitute an eviction in whole or in part, at any time, nor shall we be liable to you for any inconvenience or discomfort, and Rent shall not abate during any period that we reenter. You agree that we do not have to provide you with 48-hour notice for the inspection and treatment of bed bugs. We may enter regardless of whether you are present by duplicate key or by breaking a window or other means when necessary or in the event of an emergency.

30. JOINT AND SEVERAL RESPONSIBILITY. Each resident is jointly and severally liable for all Lease Contract obligations. If you or any guest or occupant violates the Lease Contract or rules, all residents are considered to have violated the Lease Contract. Our requests and notices (including sale notices) to any resident constitute notice to all residents and occupants. Notices and requests from any resident or occupant (including notices of termination, repair requests, and entry permissions) constitute notice from all residents. In eviction suits, each resident is considered the agent of all other residents in the apartment for service of process. Security Deposit refunds and deduction itemizations of multiple residents will comply with paragraph 51 (Deposit Return, Surrender, and Abandonment or Judicial Eviction).

Replacements

31. CHANGING RESIDENTS. You may not assign or sublet without our prior written consent, which may be withheld in our absolute discretion. Replacing, adding, or subcontracting a resident is allowed only with our written consent. We may specifically condition any changes to authorized occupants upon among other things, successful completion of the application process by any proposed new resident, payment of application fees or other customary fees and charges required by new residents, and the execution of any documents we deem necessary. The departing resident must agree in writing as to the disposition of any security deposit. The departing resident will no longer have a right to occupancy or a security deposit refund, but will remain liable for the remainder of the original Lease term unless we agree otherwise in writing—even if a new Lease Contract is signed. You may not advertise or sublease the premises as a short-term or vacation rental via airbnb, Homeaway, VRBO, or similar forum.

Responsibilities of Owner and Resident

32. RESPONSIBILITIES OF OWNER. We'll act with customary diligence to:

- (1) keep common areas reasonably clean, subject to paragraph 26 (Conditions of the Premises and Alterations);
- (2) maintain fixtures, furniture, hot water, heating and A/C equipment in compliance with C.R.S. § 38-12-501;
- (3) comply with applicable federal, state, and local laws regarding safety, sanitation, and fair housing. C.R.S. § 24-34-502(1) prohibits source of income discrimination and requires a non-exempt landlord to accept any lawful and verifiable source of money paid directly, indirectly, or on behalf of a person, including income derived from any lawful profession or occupation and income or rental payments derived from any government or private assistance, grant, or loan program and when required by law, we will make reasonable efforts to

- cooperate in good faith with your rental assistance application process, including providing necessary documentation to state or local housing agencies or administrators; and
- (4) make all reasonable repairs, subject to your obligation to pay for damages for which you are liable.

If we violate any of the above, and you have complied with your legal obligations under this Lease Contract and under state statute, you may terminate your tenancy and exercise other remedies as permitted only by state statute.

33. OWNER'S RIGHTS TO TERMINATE THE LEASE. Pursuant to C.R.S. § 38-12-1303, et seq., as amended, we are legally permitted to non-renew your Lease for the following reasons:

- (1) If you have not been a resident of the premises for at least twelve (12) months;

- (2) If we plan to demolish the property, convert it to a non-residential use, or convert it to a short-term rental property;
- (3) If we plan to make substantial repairs or renovations to the property;
- (4) If you refuse to sign a renewal lease with reasonable terms; or
- (5) If you have submitted a late rent payment to us more than two times during the Lease term (i.e., if you fail to pay the full amount due within ten (10) days after receiving written notice from us).

Pursuant to C.R.S. § 38-12-1303, et seq., as amended, we are legally permitted to evict you from the Apartment for the following reasons:

- (1) If you holdover and continue to possess the Apartment, or any portion of the property, after the Lease term, and either party provided a written notice of Lease termination;
- (2) If you violate the Lease Contract covenant to pay rent;
- (3) If you commit a substantial violation of the Lease Contract as described in C.R.S. § 13-40-107.5;
- (4) If you commit a material violation of the Lease Contract;
- (5) If you commit a repeat violation of the Lease after you received written notice of violation from us; or
- (6) If you engage in conduct that creates a nuisance or disturbance that interferes with our quiet enjoyment or the quiet enjoyment of other residents at the property, or if you are negligently damaging the premises.

34. DEFAULT BY RESIDENT. You shall be in default if you break or fail to observe or perform any promise, agreement, or covenant set forth in this Agreement or any Addendum, including but not limited to your failure to timely and fully pay any Rent and other amounts due, which is a material violation of this Lease, abandoning or vacating the premises without fully performing all Lease terms and conditions, or if you shall make any misrepresentation. Regardless, of whether specifically stated in any Lease provisions or Addendum, you are always responsible for the conduct of, shall be liable for, and shall also be in default if any occupant, family member, children, guest, invitee, or any other person in or about the premises, coming to or leaving the premises, or on Owner's Property due to you, or with your knowledge or consent breaches or fails to observe any of your covenants, promises, or obligations contained in this Agreement or any Addendum. You will also be in default if you in bad faith, make any invalid complaint to an official or employee of a utility company or the government. If you fail to cure any default, provided any default can be cured, or commit a non-curable default either defined by this Agreement or by law, you shall be in breach of this Agreement and Owner shall have all remedies provided in this Agreement and at law.

False Application. You executed this Lease Contract after completing a Rental Application or portable tenant screening report. You acknowledge that we entered into this Lease Contract in reliance on the information contained in your Rental Application. Accordingly, providing false information is a material violation of this Agreement. If it is determined at any time that such information is incorrect, false, or materially misleading, you will be in default of this Lease Contract and we shall have the option to terminate your right of occupancy if you fail to cure the default by providing true and accurate information to us within 10 days after receiving a written demand for compliance or possession from us.

Right to cure. Unless we have the specific right to terminate your right of occupancy, you have a statutory right to cure all violations in accordance with statute.

Lease Renewal When A Breach or Default Has Occurred. If this is a renewal agreement, it is contingent on you not being in default of your existing Lease Contract. Your default of your existing Lease Contract is a material violation of this renewal agreement and we may, at our sole and absolute discretion, terminate this renewal agreement and the existing Lease Contract, even if this renewal agreement has yet to commence, if you fail to cure the default within 10 days after receiving a written demand for compliance or possession from us.

Eviction. If you default, we may end your right of occupancy by giving you written notice required by statute or by this Lease Contract. Notice may be by: (1) personal delivery to any resident; (2) personal delivery at the apartment to any occupant over 15 years old; or (3) affixing the notice to the apartment's main entry door. Unless we have specifically released you in writing, termination of your possession rights or subsequent reletting doesn't release you from liability for early move-out charges or other lease obligations. After giving notice to vacate or filing an eviction suit, we may still accept rent or other sums due; the filing or acceptance doesn't waive or diminish our right of eviction, or any other contractual or statutory right. Accepting money at any time doesn't waive our right to damages; past or future rent or other sums; or to continue with eviction proceedings.

Acceleration of Future Rent. Unless damages are liquidated pursuant to paragraph 11 (Early Move-Out), all future monthly rent for the rest of the Lease term or renewal period will be accelerated automatically without notice or demand and will be immediately due and delinquent if, without our written consent: (1) you move out, remove property in preparing to move out, or give oral or written notice (by you or any occupant) of intent to move out before the Lease Contract term or renewal period ends; and (2) you've not paid all rent for the entire Lease term or renewal period. Unless damages are liquidated pursuant to paragraph 11 (Early Move-Out), remaining rent also will be accelerated if you're judicially evicted or move out when we demand because you've defaulted. Acceleration is subject to our mitigation obligations below.

Holdover. You or any occupant, invitee, or guest must not wrongfully hold over beyond the date contained in your move-out notice or our notice to vacate (or beyond a different move-out date agreed to by the parties in writing). If a wrongful holdover occurs, then: (1) holdover rent is due in advance on a daily basis and may become delinquent without notice or demand; (2) rent for the holdover period will be increased by 25% over the then-existing rent, without notice; (3) you'll be liable to us for all rent for the full term of the previously signed Lease Contract of a new resident who can't occupy because of the holdover; and (4) at our option, we may extend the Lease term of a new resident—for up to one month from the date of notice of lease extension—by delivering written notice to you or your apartment while you continue to hold over.

Remedies Cumulative. Any remedies set forth herein shall be cumulative, in addition to, and not in limitation of, any other remedies available to Landlord under any applicable law.

Other Remedies. We may report unpaid amounts to credit agencies. If you default and move out without fully performing all of your Lease Contract covenants, you will pay, repay, or refund to us any amounts stated to be rental discounts in this Lease Contract or any addendum, in addition to other sums due. Upon your default, we have all other legal remedies, including tenancy termination. Unless a party is seeking exemplary, punitive, sentimental or personal-injury damages, the court shall award the prevailing party from the non-prevailing party attorney's fees and all other litigation costs following a determination by the court that the party prevailed and that the fees and costs are reasonable. If we filed an eviction due to your Lease breach, including breaching for non-payment of rent, regardless of outcome or disposition by the Court, you agree that the Court upon request shall make a determination who the prevailing party was in any eviction and whether any attorneys' fees and court costs sought by any party are reasonable. If for any reason the Court does not make such determination in any eviction lawsuit between the parties, you and we agree that a Court in any subsequent action between us shall make that determination.

Domestic Violence Protections and Payment Plans. If you are a victim of domestic abuse, unlawful sexual behavior, or stalking as defined by C.R.S. § 38-12-402 and § 13-40-104(4)(e), and you are served with a written demand for rent under this Lease, you may be eligible to request a payment plan for rent arrears. To initiate this process, you must submit written notice and provide qualifying documentation under C.R.S. § 38-12-402(2)(a). If we receive proper notice and documentation, and if a payment plan is authorized by law, we will not proceed with eviction as long as you comply with the agreed terms of the payment plan.

(check if applicable) ☐ Cap on Attorneys' Fees. The attorneys' fees and costs awarded to the prevailing party shall not exceed $2,500.00.

Late charges are liquidated damages for our time, inconvenience, and overhead in collecting late rent (but are not for attorney's fees and litigation costs). Except for unpaid rent and late charges, all other unpaid amounts bear 18% interest per year from due date, compounded annually. You must pay all collection-agency fees if you fail to pay all sums due within 10 days after we mail you a letter demanding payment and stating that collection agency fees will be added if you don't pay all sums by that deadline.

Mitigation of Damages. If you move out early, you'll be subject to paragraph 11 (Early Move-Out) and all other remedies. In the event Box 1 in paragraph 11 (Early Move-Out) is checked, we will exercise customary diligence to relet and mitigate damages, and we'll credit all subsequent rent that we actually receive from subsequent residents against your liability for past-due and future rent and other sums due.

General Clauses

- 35. ENTIRE AGREEMENT. Neither we nor any of our representatives have made any oral promises, representations, or agreements. This Lease Contract is the entire agreement between you and us.
- 36. NO AUTHORITY TO AMEND UNLESS IN WRITING.
Our representatives (including management personnel, employees, and agents) have no authority to waive, amend, or terminate this Lease Contract or any part of it, unless in writing, and no authority to make promises, representations, or agreements that impose security duties or other obligations on us or our representatives unless in writing.
- 37. NO WAIVER. No action or omission of our representative will be considered a waiver of any subsequent violation, default, or time or place of performance. Our not enforcing or belatedly enforcing written-notice requirements, rental due dates, acceleration, liens, or other rights isn't a waiver under any circumstances.
- 38. NOTICE. Except when notice or demand is required by statute, you waive any notice and demand for performance from us if you default. Written notice to or from our managers constitutes notice to or from us. Any person giving a notice under this Lease Contract should retain a copy of the memo, letter or fax that was given. Fax and electronic signatures are binding. All notices must be signed.
- 39. MISCELLANEOUS.
- A. All of your obligations under this Lease Contract (including payment of all sums) are independent covenants.
 - B. A violation on our part is not a defense to eviction except as permitted by law.
 - C. Exercising one remedy won't constitute an election or waiver of other remedies.
 - D. Unless prohibited by law or the respective insurance policies, insurance subrogation is waived by all parties.
 - E. All remedies are cumulative.
 - F. No employee, agent, or management company is personally liable for any of our contractual, statutory, or other obligations merely by virtue of acting on our behalf.
 - G. This Lease Contract binds subsequent owners.
 - H. Neither an invalid clause nor the omission of initials on any page invalidates this Lease Contract.
 - I. All provisions regarding our non-liability and non-duty apply to our employees, agents, and management companies.
 - J. This Lease Contract is subordinate or superior to existing and future recorded mortgages, at lender's option.
 - K. All Lease Contract obligations must be performed in the county where the apartment is located.
 - L. All discretionary rights reserved for us within this Lease Contract or any accompanying addenda are at our sole and absolute discretion.
- 40. WAIVER OF JURY TRIAL. To minimize legal expenses and, to the extent allowed by law, you and we agree that in any legal proceedings in which we are seeking possession of the Apartment from you, a trial shall be to a judge and not a jury.

- 41. CONTACTING YOU. By signing this Lease Contract, you are agreeing that we, our representative(s) or agent(s) may contact you. You agree that we may contact you using any contact information relating to your Lease including any number (i) you have provided to us (ii) from which you called us, or (iii) which we obtained and through which we reasonably believe we can reach you. You agree we may use any means to contact you. This may include calls made to your cellular telephone using an automatic telephone dialing system, artificial or prerecorded voice messages, text messages, mail, e-mail, and calls to your phone or Voice over Internet Protocol (VoIP) service, or any other data or voice transmission technology. You agree to promptly notify us if you change any contact information you provide to us. You are responsible for any service provider charges as a result of us contacting you.
- 42. OBLIGATION TO VACATE. If we provide you with a notice to vacate in accordance with applicable law, or if you provide us with a written notice to vacate or intent to move-out in accordance with the Lease Terms paragraph, and we accept such written notice, then you are required to vacate the Apartment and remove all of your personal property therefrom at the expiration of the Lease term, or by the date set forth in the notice to vacate, whichever date is earlier, without further notice or demand from us. If you provide us with a written notice to vacate or intent to move-out, you cannot withdraw your notice.
- 43. FORCE MAJEURE. If we are prevented from completing performances of any obligations hereunder by an act of God, strikes, epidemics, war, acts of terrorism, riots, flood, fire, hurricane, tornado, sabotage, or other occurrence which is beyond the control of the parties, then we shall be excused from any further performance of obligations and undertakings hereunder, to the full extent allowed under applicable law.
- Furthermore, if such an event damages the property to materially affect its habitability by some or all residents, to the fullest extent permitted by law, we reserve the right to vacate any and all leases and you agree to excuse us from any further performance of obligations and undertakings hereunder, to the full extent allowed under applicable law.
- 44. PAYMENTS. We will apply money received first to rent due, then to any of your other unpaid obligations, regardless of notations on checks or money orders and regardless of when the obligations arose. All sums other than base monthly rent are due upon our demand. After the due date and any legally required demand or cure period, we do not have to accept the rent or any other payments.
- 45. ASSOCIATION MEMBERSHIP. We represent that either: (1) we or; (2) the management company that represents us, is at the time of signing this Lease Contract or a renewal of this Lease Contract, a member of both the National Apartment Association and any affiliated state and local apartment (multi-housing) associations for the area where the apartment is located.

When Moving Out

- 46. MOVE-OUT NOTICE. If you intend to move out prior to the end of the Lease term or the Lease Contract is or becomes a month-to-month Lease term, you must give our representative 60 days advance written notice of your intention to vacate. If you move out prior to the end of the Lease term, your notice does not act as a release of liability for the full term of the Lease Contract. You will still be liable for the early move-out charges under paragraph 11 (Early Move-Out) except if you are able to terminate your tenancy under the statutory rights explained under paragraph 23 (Release of Resident) or any other applicable laws. All notices to vacate must be in writing and must provide the date by which you intend to vacate. If your notice does not comply with the time requirements you agree to pay and are liable for our actual losses incurred, regardless of whether you occupy the premises for the entire notice period. If your Lease term is month-to-month, your advance written notice of your move out date must be on the last day of a month. If you fail to vacate by the date set forth in your notice, you will automatically and immediately become a holdover tenant pursuant to state law, and we will have all remedies available under this Lease Contract and state law. If you provide us with a notice of your intention to vacate, you may not withdraw or retract your notice without our written consent, which we may deny at our sole discretion.

- 47. MOVE-OUT PROCEDURES. The move-out date can't be changed unless you and we both agree in writing. You won't move out before the Lease Contract term or renewal period ends unless all rent for the entire Lease Contract term or renewal period is paid in full. Early move-out may result in early move-out charges under paragraphs 11 (Early Move-Out) and 33 (Default by Resident). You're prohibited by law from applying any security deposit to rent. You won't stay beyond the date you are supposed to move out. All residents, guests, and occupants must vacate the apartment before the 60-day period for deposit refund begins. You must give us and the U.S. Postal Service, in writing, each resident's forwarding address.
- 48. CLEANING. You must thoroughly clean the apartment, including doors, windows, furniture, bathrooms, kitchen appliances, patios, balconies, garages, carports, and storage rooms. You must follow move-out cleaning instructions if they have been provided. If you don't clean adequately, you'll be liable for reasonable cleaning charges in accordance with C.R.S. § 38-12-103, et seq.
- 49. MOVE-OUT INSPECTION. You should meet with our representative for a move-out inspection. Our representative has no authority to bind or limit us regarding deductions for repairs, damages, or charges. Any statements or estimates by our representative are subject to our correction, modification, or disapproval before final refunding or accounting.

50. SECURITY DEPOSIT DEDUCTIONS AND OTHER CHARGES.

Normal wear and tear excepted, you'll be liable for and you agree that we may deduct from your Security Deposit any charge, fee, sum, amount, or damage owed by you. This includes but is not limited to unpaid rent; unpaid utilities; unpaid late charges; agreed early move-out charges; unreimbursed service charges; charges for replacing all keys and access devices if you fail to return them on or before your actual move-out date; repairs or damages caused by smoke or smoking, negligence, carelessness, accident, or abuse, including stickers, scratches, tears, burns, stains, or unapproved holes; replacement cost of our property that was in or attached to the apartment and is missing; replacing dead or missing smoke-detector batteries; utilities for repairs or cleaning; trips to let in company representatives to remove your telephone or TV cable services or rental items (if you so request or have moved out); trips to open the apartment when you or any guest or occupant is missing a key; unreturned keys; missing or burned-out light bulbs; removing or storing property under paragraph 13 (Property Left in Apartment); removing any vehicle pursuant to our rights under this Lease Contract and the law; special trips for trash removal caused by parked vehicles blocking dumpsters; false security-alarm charges unless due to our negligence; animal-related charges under paragraph 28 (Animals); government fees or fines against us for violation (by you, your occupants, or guests) of local ordinances relating to smoke detectors, false alarms, recycling, or other matters; late-payment and returned-check charges. We may also deduct any charge, expense, or amount incurred by us because of your Lease breach. This includes all sheriff's fees, court costs, and court filing fees, and any attorneys' fees based on a court determining that we were the prevailing party and the amount of the fees were reasonable regardless of whether the court enters a monetary judgment for any attorneys' fees.

51. DEPOSIT RETURN, SURRENDER, AND ABANDONMENT OR JUDICIAL EVICTION.

Deposit Return and Forwarding Address. You are required to provide us written notice of your forwarding address, on or before termination of this Lease Contract. We'll mail you, to the forwarding address you provide, your Security Deposit refund (less lawful deductions) and an itemized accounting of any deductions no later than 60 days after termination of the Lease or surrender of the premises, whichever occurs last.

You agree we may electronically mail you a final accounting after you vacate the premises, and that we complied with C.R.S. § 38-12-103, et seq. upon our submission of the electronic mail and proof of your receipt is not required. You consent to us paying your Security Deposit refund, if any, via an electronic transfer of funds ("EFT"). To be paid by EFT, you must make a written request using our Security Deposit EFT Refund Form before vacating the Premises. We will select the EFT method in our sole discretion and are not required to use a specific method requested by you. If more than one resident signed this Lease Contract, all residents must sign the written request and designate the account to which the EFT should be made. If you do not provide a valid written request before vacating the premises, we will issue the Security Deposit refund by written check in accordance with this Lease Contract and mail it to your last known address.

Upon move out, you will deliver to us at the onsite Management Office all keys to the premises, access cards or devices and remotes (collectively "keys") issued by us to you to avoid disputes over the date you vacated and surrendered the premises. You have not vacated and surrendered possession of the premises to us until and unless you have either turned in all keys to the premises and we have acknowledged receipt of your keys, or you have abandoned the premises in our reasonable judgment. If you fail to turn in keys, you agree that you will be liable for rent and any other damages in accordance with this Lease Contract through the date we determine that you vacated and surrendered the premises in our reasonable judgment.

You have abandoned the premises if your personal belongings have been substantially removed, and you do not appear to be living in the premises in our reasonable judgment and if any of the following have occurred: (1) your written move out date has passed; (2) we are in the process of judicially evicting you for any reason; (3) you've been in default for non-payment of rent for 10 consecutive days or water, gas, or electric service for the apartment not connected in our name has been terminated; and (4) you've not responded for 2 days to our notice left on the inside of the main entry door, stating that we consider the apartment abandoned. Pursuant to Colorado law, the premises are also abandoned upon the death of a sole resident if (1) the personal representative of resident's estate notifies us in writing that the estate is surrendering possession of the premises and any remaining personal property; or (2) thirty days have passed since the death of the resident and (a) rent remains unpaid; or (b) substantially all of the resident's property has been removed.

Surrender, abandonment, or judicial eviction end your right of possession for all purposes and gives us the immediate right to: clean up, make repairs in, and relet the apartment; determine any security deposit deductions; and remove property left in the apartment. Surrender, abandonment, and judicial eviction affect your rights to property left in the apartment (paragraph 13 - Property Left in Apartment), but do not affect our mitigation obligations (paragraph 34 - Default by Resident).

- Animals may not be tied to any fixed object anywhere outside the dwellings, except in fenced yards (if any) for your exclusive use.

- You must not let an animal other than assistance animals into swimming-pool areas, laundry rooms, offices, clubrooms, other recreational facilities, or other dwellings.
- Your animal must be fed and watered inside the dwelling. Don't leave animal food or water outside the dwelling at any time, except in fenced yards (if any) for your exclusive use.

We or our representative may pick up unleashed animals and/or report them to the proper authorities. We may impose reasonable charges for picking up and/or keeping unleashed animals.
- Unless we have designated a particular area in your dwelling or on the grounds for animal defecation and urination, you are prohibited from letting an animal defecate or urinate anywhere on our property. You must take the animal off our property for that purpose. If we allow animal defecation inside the dwelling in this Addendum, you must ensure that it's done in a litter box with a kitty litter-type mix. If the animal defecates anywhere on our property (including in a fenced yard for your exclusive use), you'll be responsible for immediately removing the waste and repairing any damage. Despite anything this Addendum says, you must comply with all local ordinances regarding animal defecation.

11. ADDITIONAL RULES. We have the right to make reasonable changes to the animal rules from time to time if we distribute a written copy of any changes to every Resident who is allowed to have animals.

12. VIOLATION OF RULES. If you, your guest, or any occupant violates any rule or provision of this Animal Addendum (based upon our judgment) and we give you written notice, you must permanently remove the animal from the premises within the time period specified in our notice. We also have all other rights and remedies set forth in the Lease Contract, including damages, eviction, and attorney's fees to the extent allowed by law.

13. COMPLAINTS ABOUT ANIMAL. You must immediately and permanently remove the animal from the premises if we receive a reasonable complaint from a neighbor or other Resident or if we, in our sole discretion, determine that the animal has disturbed neighbors or other Residents.

14. OUR REMOVAL OF ANIMAL. In some circumstances, we may enter the dwelling and remove the animal with one day's notice left in a conspicuous place. We can do this if, in our sole judgment, you have:

- abandoned the animal;
- left the animal in the dwelling for an extended period of time without food or water;
- failed to care for a sick animal;
- violated our animal rules; or
- let the animal defecate or urinate where it's not supposed to.

In doing this, we must follow the procedures of the Lease Contract, and we may board the animal or turn the animal over to a humane society or local authority. We'll return the animal to you upon request if we haven't already turned it over to a humane society or local authority. We don't have a lien on the animal for any purpose, but you must pay for reasonable care and kenneling charges for the animal. If you don't pick up the animal within 5 days after we remove it, it will be considered abandoned.

15. LIABILITY FOR DAMAGES, INJURIES, CLEANING, ETC. You and all Co-Residents will be jointly and severally liable for the entire amount of all damages caused by the animal, including all cleaning, defleaing, and deodorizing. This provision applies to all parts of the dwelling, including carpets, doors, walls, drapes, wallpaper, windows, screens, furniture, appliances, as well as landscaping and other outside improvements. If items cannot be satisfactorily cleaned or repaired, you must pay for us to replace them completely. Payment for damages, repairs, cleaning, replacements, etc. are due immediately upon demand.

As owner of the animal, you’re strictly liable for the entire amount of any injury that the animal causes to a person or anyone’s property. You’ll indemnify us for all costs of litigation and attorney’s fees resulting from any such damage.

16. MOVE-OUT. When you move out, you’ll pay for defleaing, deodorizing, and shampooing to protect future Residents from possible health hazards, regardless of how long the animal was there. We—not you—will arrange for these services.

17. JOINT AND SEVERAL RESPONSIBILITY. Each Resident who signed the Lease Contract must sign this Animal Addendum. You, your guests, and any occupants must follow all animal rules. Each Resident is jointly and severally liable for damages and all other obligations set forth in this Animal Addendum, even if the Resident does not own the animal.

18. GENERAL. You acknowledge that no other oral or written agreement exists regarding animals. Except for written rule changes under paragraph 8 above, our representative has no authority to modify this Animal Addendum or the animal rules except in writing. This Animal Addendum and the animal rules are considered part of the Lease Contract described above. It has been executed in multiple originals, one for you and one or more for us.

This is a binding legal document. Read it carefully before signing.

METERING/ALLOCATION METHOD KEY

- "1" - Sub-metering of all of your water/gas/electric use
 - "2" - Calculation of your total water use based on sub-metering of hot water
 - "3" - Calculation of your total water use based on sub-metering of cold water
 - "4" - Flat rate per month
 - "5" - Allocation based on the number of persons residing in your apartment
 - "6" - Allocation based on the number of persons residing in your apartment using a ratio occupancy formula
 - "7" - Allocation based on square footage of your apartment
 - "8" - Allocation based on a combination of square footage of your apartment and the number of persons residing in your apartment
 - "9" - Allocation based on the number of bedrooms in your apartment
 - "10" - Allocation based on a lawful formula not listed here
- (Note: if method "10" is selected, a separate sheet will be attached describing the formula used)

2. If an allocation method is used, we or our billing company will calculate your allocated share of the utilities and services provided and all costs in accordance with state and local statutes. Under allocation methods "4" - "10", Resident may be paying an administrative fee on unregulated services. Both Resident and Owner agree that using a calculation or allocation formula as a basis for estimating unregulated services is fair and reasonable, while recognizing that the allocation method may or may not accurately reflect actual total services for Resident. Where lawful, we may change the above methods of determining your allocated share of utilities and services and all other billing methods or third-party billing companies, in our sole discretion, and after providing written notice to you. More detailed descriptions of billing methods, calculations and allocation formulas will be provided upon request.

If a flat fee method for trash or other unregulated service is used, Resident and Owner agree that the charges indicated in this Agreement (as may be amended with written notice as specified above) represent a fair and reasonable amount for the service(s) provided and that the amount billed is not based on a monthly per unit cost.

3. When billed by us directly or through our billing company, you must pay utility bills within 7 days of the date when the utility bill is issued at the place indicated on your bill, or the payment will be late. The late payment of a bill or failure to pay any utility bill is a material and substantial breach of the Lease and we will exercise all remedies available under the Lease, up to and including eviction for nonpayment, unless prohibited by law. To the extent there are any new account, monthly administrative, or final bill fees (unregulated services only), you shall pay such fees as indicated below.

New Account Fee:	$ _____ (not to exceed $ _____)
Monthly Administrative Billing Fee:	$ _____ (not to exceed $ _____)
Final Bill Fee:	$ _____ (not to exceed $ _____)

If allowed by state law, we at our sole discretion may amend these fees, with written notice to you.

4. No later than the Lease commencement date, you will transfer into your name or account all utilities to be paid for by you. In the event you fail to timely establish utility services, we may charge you a reasonable administration fee for billing any unregulated service. Similarly, you will not change any such utility out of your name or allow any utility to be disconnected for any reason or by any means, including but not limited to non-payment of utility bills until you vacate the apartment. You consent to any utility company notifying us of your failure to pay any utility, or of any pending disconnection. If you breach the Lease, you will be responsible for utility changes for the time period you were obliged to pay the charges under the Lease, subject to our mitigation of damages. You are liable for all utilities until you move out, or could have moved out, whichever date is first.
5. When you move out, you will receive a final bill. This bill must be paid at the time you move out or it will be deducted from the security deposit.
6. We are not liable for any losses or damages you incur as a result of outages, interruptions, or fluctuations in utility services provided to the apartment unless such loss or damage was the direct result of negligence by us or our employees. You release us from any and all such claims and waive any claims for offset or reduction of rent or diminished rental value of the apartment due to such outages, interruptions, or fluctuations.
7. You agree not to tamper with, adjust, or disconnect any utility sub-metering system or device. Violation of this provision is a material breach of your Lease and may subject you to eviction or other remedies available to us under your Lease, this Addendum and at law.
8. You represent that all occupants that will be residing in the Unit are accurately identified in the Lease. You agree to promptly notify Owner of any change in such number of occupants.
9. This Addendum is designed for use in multiple jurisdictions, and no billing method, charge, or fee mentioned herein will be used in any jurisdiction where such use would be unlawful. If any provision of this Addendum or the Lease is invalid or unenforceable under applicable law, such provision shall be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability only without invalidating or otherwise affecting the remainder of this Addendum or the Lease. Except as specifically stated herein, all other terms and conditions of the Lease shall remain unchanged. We have the right to select any licensed pest control professional to treat the apartment and building. We can select the method of treating the apartment, building and common areas for bed bugs. We can also inspect and treat adjacent or neighboring apartments to the infestation even if those apartments are not the source or cause of the known infestation. Unless otherwise prohibited by law, you are responsible for and must, at your own expense, have your own personal property, furniture, clothing and possessions treated according to accepted treatment methods established by a licensed pest control firm that we approve. You must do so as close as possible to the time we treated the apartment.  - of any recurring or unexplained bites, stings, irritations, or sores of the skin or body which you believe is caused by bed bugs, or by any condition or pest you believe is in the apartment.
 - if you discover any condition or evidence that might indicate the presence or infestation of bed bugs, or of any confirmation of bed bug presence by a licensed pest control professional or other authoritative source.

You must follow all directions from us or our agents to clean and treat the apartment and building that are infested. If you are not fully prepared for a treatment, you agree to reimburse us for our actual costs. You may only remove or destroy personal property that cannot be treated or cleaned as instructed by our qualified inspector. Any items you remove from the apartment must be disposed of off-site and not in the common areas or property's trash receptacles. If we confirm the presence or infestation of bed bugs in your apartment, we have the right to require you to temporarily vacate the apartment and remove all furniture, clothing and personal belongings in order for us to perform pest control services. If you fail to cooperate with us, you will be in default, and we will have the right to terminate your right of occupancy and exercise all rights and remedies under the Lease Contract.

8. RESPONSIBILITIES. We will be responsible for the initial costs of inspection and, if the presence of bed bugs is confirmed by a qualified inspector, the initial costs of treatment. If you knowingly and unreasonably fail to comply with inspections and treatment requirements, you will be in default of this Addendum, the Lease Contract, and state law, and you may be required to pay all reasonable costs of any necessary treatments to your apartment and any adjoining or neighboring apartments to your apartment if the treatments arose from your noncompliance. BED BUGS — A Guide for Rental Housing Residents

Bed bugs, with a typical lifespan of 6 to 12 months, are wingless, flat, broadly oval-shaped insects. Capable of reaching the size of an apple seed at full growth, bed bugs are distinguishable by their reddish-brown color, although after feeding on the blood of humans and warm-blooded animals—their sole food source—the bugs assume a distinctly blood-red hue until digestion is complete.

Bed bugs don't discriminate

Bed bugs increased presence across the United States in recent decades can be attributed largely to a surge in international travel and trade. It's no surprise then that bed bugs have been found time and time again to have taken up residence in some of the fanciest hotels and apartment buildings in some of the nation's most expensive neighborhoods.

Nonetheless, false claims that associate bed bugs presence with poor hygiene and uncleanliness have caused rental housing residents, out of shame, to avoid notifying owners of their presence. This serves only to enable the spread of bed bugs.

While bed bugs are, by their very nature, more attracted to clutter, they're certainly not discouraged by cleanliness.

Bottom line: bed bugs know no social and economic bounds; claims to the contrary are false.

Bed bugs don't transmit disease

There exists no scientific evidence that bed bugs transmit disease. In fact, federal agencies tasked with addressing pest of public health concern, namely the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, have refused to elevate bed bugs to the threat level posed by disease transmitting pests. Again, claims associating bed bugs with disease are false.

Identifying bed bugs

Bed bugs can often be found in, around and between:

- Bedding
- Bed frames
- Mattress seams
- Upholstered furniture, especially under cushions and along seams
- Around, behind and under wood furniture, especially along areas where drawers slide
- Curtains and draperies
- Along window and door frames
- Ceiling and wall junctions
- Crown moldings
- Behind and around wall hangings and loose wallpaper
- Between carpeting and walls (carpet can be pulled away from the wall and tack strip)
- Cracks and crevices in walls and floors
- Inside electronic devices, such as smoke and carbon monoxide detectors

- Because bed bugs leave some persons with itchy welts strikingly similar to those caused by fleas and mosquitoes, the origination of such markings often go misdiagnosed. However, welts caused by bed bugs often times appear in succession and on exposed areas of skin, such as the face, neck and arms. In some cases, an individual may not experience any visible reaction resulting from direct contact with bed bugs.
- While bed bugs typically prefer to act at night, they often do not succeed in returning to their hiding spots without leaving traces of their presence through fecal markings of a red to dark brown color, visible on or near beds. Blood stains tend also to appear when the bugs have been squashed, usually by an unsuspecting host in their sleep. And, because they shed, it's not uncommon for skin casts to be left behind in areas typically frequented by bed bugs.

Preventing bed bug encounters when traveling

Because humans serve as bed bugs' main mode of transportation, it is extremely important to be mindful of bed bugs when away from home. Experts agree that the spread of bed bugs across all regions of the United States is largely attributed to an increase in international travel and trade. Travelers are therefore encouraged to take a few minutes upon arriving to their temporary destination to thoroughly inspect their accommodations, so as to ensure that any uninvited guests are detected before the decision is made to unpack.

Because bed bugs can easily travel from one room to another, it is also recommended that travelers thoroughly inspect their luggage and belongings for bed bugs before departing for home.

Bed bug do's and don'ts

- Do not bring used furniture from unknown sources into your apartment. Countless bed bug infestations have stemmed directly from the introduction into a resident's unit of second-hand and abandoned furniture. Unless the determination can be made with absolute certainty that a piece of second-hand furniture is bed bug-free, residents should assume that the reason a seemingly nice looking leather couch, for example, is sitting curbside, waiting to be hauled off to the landfill, may very well be due to the fact that it's teeming with bed bugs.
- Do address bed bug sightings immediately. Rental housing residents who suspect the presence of bed bugs in their unit must immediately notify the owner.
- Do not attempt to treat bed bug infestations. Under no circumstance should you attempt to eradicate bed bugs. Health hazards associated with the misapplication of traditional and non-traditional, chemical-based insecticides and pesticides poses too great a risk to you and your neighbors.
- Do comply with eradication protocol. If the determination is made that your unit is indeed playing host to bed bugs, you must comply with the bed bug eradication protocol set forth by both your owner and their designated pest management company.

Please note: It is our goal to maintain a quality living environment for our residents. To help achieve this goal, it is important to work together to minimize any mold growth in your dwelling. That is why this Addendum contains important information for you, and responsibilities for both you and us.

This Addendum constitutes an Addendum to the above described Lease Contract for the above described premises, and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of such Lease Contract. Where the terms or conditions found in this Addendum vary or contradict any terms or conditions found in the Lease Contract, this Addendum shall control.

3. ABOUT MOLD. Mold is found virtually everywhere in our environment—both indoors and outdoors and in both new and old structures. Molds are naturally occurring microscopic organisms which reproduce by spores and have existed practically from the beginning of time. All of us have lived with mold spores all our lives. Without molds we would all be struggling with large amounts of dead organic matter.

Mold breaks down organic matter in the environment and uses the end product for its food. Mold spores (like plant pollen) spread through the air and are commonly transported by shoes, clothing and other materials. When excess moisture is present inside a dwelling, mold can grow. A 2004 Federal Centers for Disease Control and Prevention study found that there is currently no scientific evidence that the accumulation of mold causes any significant health risks for persons with normally functioning immune systems. Nonetheless, appropriate precautions need to be taken.

4. PREVENTING MOLD BEGINS WITH YOU. In order to minimize the potential for mold growth in your dwelling, you must do the following:

- Keep your dwelling, clean—particularly the kitchen, the bathroom(s), carpets and floors. Regular vacuuming, mopping and using a household cleaner to clean hard surfaces is important to remove the household dirt and debris that harbor mold or food for mold. Immediately throw away moldy food.
- Remove visible moisture accumulation on windows, walls, ceilings, floors and other surfaces as soon as reasonably possible. Look for leaks in washing machine hoses and discharge lines—especially if the leak is large enough for water to infiltrate nearby walls. Turn on any exhaust fans in the bathroom and kitchen before you start showering or cooking with open pots. When showering, be sure to keep the shower curtain inside the tub or fully close the shower doors. Also, the experts recommend that after taking a shower or bath, you: (1) wipe moisture off of shower walls, shower doors, the bathtub and the bathroom floor; (2) leave the bathroom door open until all moisture on the mirrors and bathroom walls and tile surfaces has dissipated; and (3) hang up your towels and bath mats so they will completely dry out.

- Promptly notify us in writing about any air conditioning or heating system problems you discover. Follow our rules, if any, regarding replacement of air filters. Also, it is recommended that you periodically open windows and doors on days when the outdoor weather is dry (i.e., humidity is below 50 percent) to help humid areas of your dwelling dry out.
- Promptly notify us in writing about any signs of water leaks, water infiltration or mold. We will respond in accordance with state law and the Lease Contract to repair or remedy the situation, as necessary.
- Keep the thermostat set to automatically circulate air in the event temperatures rise to or above 80 degrees Fahrenheit.

5. IN ORDER TO AVOID MOLD GROWTH, it is important to prevent excessive moisture buildup in your dwelling. Failure to promptly pay attention to leaks and moisture that might accumulate on dwelling surfaces or that might get inside walls or ceilings can encourage mold growth. Prolonged moisture can result from a wide variety of sources, such as:

- rainwater leaking from roofs, windows, doors and outside walls, as well as flood waters rising above floor level;
- overflows from showers, bathtubs, toilets, lavatories, sinks, washing machines, dehumidifiers, refrigerator or A/C drip pans or clogged up A/C condensation lines;
- leaks from plumbing lines or fixtures, and leaks into walls from bad or missing grouting/caulking around showers, tubs or sinks;
- washing machine hose leaks, plant watering overflows, pet urine, cooking spills, beverage spills and steam from excessive open-pot cooking;
- leaks from clothes dryer discharge vents (which can put lots of moisture into the air); and
- insufficient drying of carpets, carpet pads, shower walls and bathroom floors.

6. IF SMALL AREAS OF MOLD HAVE ALREADY OCCURRED ON NON-POROUS SURFACES (such as ceramic tile, formica, vinyl flooring, metal, wood or plastic), the federal Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) recommends that you first clean the areas with soap (or detergent) and water, let the surface dry, and then within 24 hours apply a pre-mixed, spray-on-type household biocide, such as Lysol Disinfectant®, Pine-Sol Disinfectant® (original pine-scented), Tilex Mildew Remover® or Clorox Cleanup®. (Note: Only a few of the common household cleaners will actually kill mold). Tilex® and Clorox® contain bleach which can discolor or stain. Be sure to follow the instructions on the container. Applying biocides without first cleaning away the dirt and oils from the surface is like painting over old paint without first cleaning and preparing the surface.

Always clean and apply a biocide to an area 5 or 6 times larger than any visible mold because mold may be adjacent in quantities not yet visible to the naked eye. A vacuum cleaner with a high-efficiency particulate air (HEPA) filter can be used to help remove non-visible mold products from porous items, such as fibers in sofas, chairs, drapes and carpets—provided the fibers are completely dry. Machine washing or dry cleaning will remove mold from clothes.

7. DO NOT CLEAN OR APPLY BIOCIDES TO: (1) visible mold on porous surfaces, such as sheetrock walls or ceilings, or (2) large areas of visible mold on non-porous surfaces. Instead, notify us in writing, and we will take appropriate action.

8. COMPLIANCE. Complying with this Addendum will help prevent mold growth in your dwelling, and both you and we will be able to respond correctly if problems develop that could lead to mold growth. If you have questions regarding this Addendum, please contact us at the management office or at the phone number shown in your Lease Contract.

If you fail to comply with this Addendum, you can be held responsible for property damage to the dwelling and any health problems that may result. We can't fix problems in your dwelling unless we know about them.

3. ASBESTOS. In most dwellings which were built prior to 1981 and in some built after that, asbestos was commonly used as a construction material. In various parts of your dwelling, asbestos materials may have been used in the original construction or in renovations prior to the enactment of federal laws which limit asbestos in certain construction materials.

4. FEDERAL RECOMMENDATIONS. The United States Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) has determined that the mere presence of asbestos materials does not pose a health risk to residents and that such materials are safe so long as they are not dislodged or disturbed in a manner that causes the asbestos fibers to be released. Disturbances include sanding, scraping, pounding, or other techniques that produce dust and cause the asbestos particles to become airborne. The EPA does not require that intact asbestos materials be removed. Instead, the law simply requires that we take reasonable precautions to minimize the chance of damage or disturbance of those materials.

5. COMMUNITY POLICIES AND RULES. You, your family, other occupants, and guests must not disturb or attach anything to the walls, ceilings, floor tiles, or insulation behind the walls or ceilings in your dwelling unless specifically allowed in owner's rules or community policies that are separately attached to this Lease Contract. The foregoing prevails over other provisions of the Lease Contract to the contrary. Please report any ceiling leaks to management promptly so that pieces of acoustical ceiling material or ceiling tiles do not fall to the floor and get disturbed by people walking on the fallen material.

6. WARRANTIES, INDEMNIFICATION, and RELEASE.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, you agree to indemnify and hold us harmless from any and all claims or causes of action, arising (in whole or in part) from your breach of your obligations in this Addendum. You also agree to release us from any and all claims you or your occupants may have for the presence of asbestos in the dwelling or the building where the dwelling is located, and further release us from any and all claims of consequential damages such as damages to or loss of your personal property, claims of adverse health conditions associated with exposure to asbestos, or claims related to you being prevented from reentering the dwelling after a disturbance or possible disturbance.

4. BUY-OUT PROCEDURES. You may buy out of the Lease Contract prior to the end of the Lease term and cut off all liability for paying rent for the remainder of the Lease term if all of the following occur:
- (a) you give us written notice of buy-out at least 60 days prior to the new termination date (i.e., your new move-out date), which (check one) ☐ must be the last day of a month or ☒ may be during a month;

If you fail to comply with any of the procedures or requirements in this agreement after we deposit such monies, your buy-out right and this agreement will be voided automatically; and (1) any amounts you have paid under this agreement will become part of your security deposit, and (2) the lease will continue without buy-out. Then, if you move out early, you are subject to all lease remedies, as stated in the Early Move-Out paragraph of the Lease Contract.

8. MISCELLANEOUS. If moving out by the new termination date becomes a problem for you, contact us. An extension may be possible if we have not already relet the apartment to a successor resident. We and any successor residents who may be leasing your unit will be relying on your moving out on or before the new termination date. Therefore, you may not hold over beyond such date without our written consent—even if it means you have to make plans for temporary lodging elsewhere. “Default” as used in paragraphs 4(c) and 4(d) of this agreement means default as defined in the Lease Contract. You will continue to be liable for any damages and any sums accruing and unpaid prior to the new termination date.

This Addendum constitutes an Addendum to the above described Lease Contract for the above described premises, and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of such Lease Contract. Where the terms or conditions found in this Addendum vary or contradict any terms or conditions found in the Lease Contract, this Addendum shall control.

3. NUMBER AND SIZE. You may install 1 satellite dish(es) or antenna(s) on the leased premises. A satellite dish may not exceed one meter (3.3 feet) in diameter. Antennas that only transmit signals or that are not covered by 47 CFR § 1.4000 are prohibited.
4. LOCATION. Your satellite dish or antenna must be located: (1) inside your apartment; or (2) in an area outside your apartment such as a balcony, patio, yard, etc. of which you have exclusive use under your lease. Installation is not permitted on any parking area, roof, exterior wall, window, window sill, fence or common area, or in an area that other residents are allowed to use. A satellite dish or antenna may not protrude beyond the vertical and horizontal space that is leased to you for your exclusive use.
5. SAFETY AND NON-INTERFERENCE. Your installation: (1) must comply with all applicable ordinances and laws and all reasonable safety standards; (2) may not interfere with our cable, telephone or electrical systems or those of neighboring properties; (3) may not be connected to our telecommunication systems; and (4) may not be connected to our electrical system except by plugging into a 110-volt duplex receptacle. If the satellite dish or antenna is placed in a permitted outside area, it must be safely secured by one of three methods: (1) securely attaching it to a portable, heavy object such as a small slab of concrete; (2) clamping it to a part of the building's exterior that lies within your leased premises (such as a balcony or patio railing); or (3) any other method approved by us in writing. No other methods are allowed. We may require reasonable screening of the satellite dish or antenna by plants, etc., so long as it does not impair reception.

6. SIGNAL TRANSMISSION FROM EXTERIOR DISH OR ANTENNA TO INTERIOR OF APARTMENT. You may not damage or alter the leased premises and may not drill holes through outside walls, door jams, window sills, etc. If your satellite dish or antenna is installed outside your apartment (on a balcony, patio, etc.), the signals received by it may be transmitted to the interior of your apartment only by the following methods: (1) running a "flat" cable under a door jam or window sill in a manner that does not physically alter the premises and does not interfere with proper operation of the door or window; (2) running a traditional or flat cable through a pre-existing hole in the wall (that will not need to be enlarged to accommodate the cable); (3) connecting cables "through a window pane," similar to how an external car antenna for a cellular phone can be connected to inside wiring by a device glued to either side of the window—without drilling a hole through the window; (4) wireless transmission of the signal from the satellite dish or antenna to a device inside the apartment; or (5) any other method approved by us in writing.

7. SAFETY IN INSTALLATION. In order to assure safety, the strength and type of materials used for installation must be approved by us. Installation must be done by a qualified person or company approved by us. Our approval will not be unreasonably withheld. An installer provided by the seller of the satellite dish or antenna is presumed to be qualified.

8. MAINTENANCE. You will have the sole responsibility for maintaining your satellite dish, antenna and all related equipment.

9. REMOVAL AND DAMAGES. You must remove the satellite dish or antenna and all related equipment when you move out of the apartment. In accordance with the NAA Lease Contract, you must pay for any damages and for the cost of repairs or repainting caused by negligence, carelessness, accident or abuse which may be reasonably necessary to restore the leased premises to its condition prior to the installation of your satellite dish, antenna or related equipment. You will not be responsible for normal wear.

10. LIABILITY INSURANCE. You must take full responsibility for the satellite dish, antenna and related equipment. If the dish or antenna is installed at a height that could result in injury to others if it becomes unattached and falls, you must provide us with evidence of liability insurance (if available) to protect us against claims of personal injury and property damage to others, related to your satellite dish, antenna and related equipment. The insurance coverage must be $ 100000.00, which is an amount reasonably determined by us to accomplish that purpose. Factors affecting the amount of insurance include height of installation above ground level, potential wind velocities, risk of the dish/antenna becoming unattached and falling on someone, etc.

11. SECURITY DEPOSIT. An additional security deposit of $ _____ will be charged. We (check one) ☐ will consider or ☐ will not consider this additional security deposit a general security deposit for all purposes. The security deposit amount in Provision 4 of the Lease Contract (check one) ☐ does or ☐ does not include this additional deposit amount. 2. LEASE CONTRACT DESCRIPTION.

Lease Contract Date: December 30, 2025

Residents (list all residents):
Vardhan Senthil Kumar, Sowndarya Krishnan
Navaneetha Kannan, Sushruth Rao Murakare
Mysore Vittal Rao, Vasu Dev Yadav Koti

This Addendum constitutes an Addendum to the above described Lease Contract for the above described premises, and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of such Lease Contract. Where the terms or conditions found in this Addendum vary or contradict any terms or conditions found in the Lease Contract, this Addendum shall control.

Resident and owner agree as follows:

3. If Resident fails to report any pest infestation and/or problems with the Premises within two (2) days of move-in, Resident acknowledges that the Premises are acceptable, in good condition, and pest free. After this period, Resident shall immediately report to Owner’s onsite agent any signs or indications of pests.
- IF YOU CHOOSE TO SEND A STATUTORILY REQUIRED NOTICE TO US ELECTRONICALLY, YOU MUST SEND IT TO US AT ☐ THE ONLINE TENANT/MAINTENANCE PORTAL or ☒ FHWarranty@monarchinvestment.com

(alternative electronic method of communication).
4. Resident agrees that Resident’s violation of this Addendum constitutes a material breach of this Addendum and the Lease. Upon Resident’s breach, Owner shall have all remedies for breach set forth in this Addendum, set forth in the Lease and at law, including eviction. In accordance with Resident’s Lease, Resident is at all times responsible for the conduct of Resident’s occupants, guests, invitees and all others (“other Persons”) who are present on or in any portion of the apartment community due to or because of Resident. A violation by any other Person of this Addendum is a violation by Resident.
5. Resident agrees that it is in Resident’s best interest and the best interest of the apartment community to fully cooperate with Owner’s pest control efforts. Resident agrees to fully cooperate with Owner or Owner’s pest control company employed to eradicate pests, including all written instructions distributed to Resident. Resident’s full cooperation includes, but is not limited to, immediately reporting in writing pest infestation to the Owner, making the Premises available for entry to complete pest inspection and eradication treatment(s), completing all required pre-treatment activities, evacuating the premises during and after treatment for the required time frame, if any, completing all required post-treatment activities, and immediately reporting in writing ineffective treatment or re-infestations to the Owner. Resident shall also immediately dispose of any property or furniture that has been infested and that is not salvageable in the sole discretion of Owner’s pest control vendor.

6. Resident shall practice good housekeeping to prevent pest infestations and to promptly eradicate them if they occur. Resident shall keep the Premises clutter free, clean, and sanitary, including regularly vacuuming. Resident shall cover mattresses and box springs with zippered, vinyl coverings, to prevent bed bugs from getting inside of mattresses. Residents shall arrange furniture to minimize pest hiding places. If possible, keep furniture several inches away from walls. Resident shall inspect clothing, luggage, and other personal property for signs of bed bugs when Resident stays overnight away from the Premises, or otherwise is exposed to areas that likely contain bed bugs.
7. In addition to regularly scheduled pest control services, if any, provided by the Community, Resident may request reasonable extermination services at any time. All requests must be in writing. Owner may enter Resident’s unit to inspect for pests or for pest control related matters. If practical, Owner will notify Resident in advance of each pest inspection, including providing a preparation sheet. Notification is presumed received if Owner hands the notice and instructions directly to Resident or if Owner posts the notice and instructions to Resident’s unit. Resident acknowledges that under some circumstances, immediate action may be necessary to control pests, and Owner is not required to provide Resident advance notice if circumstances require immediate action.
8. If Resident promptly notifies Owner and cooperates with Owner and/or Owner’s pest control company and the unit is either re-infested or the initial treatment is ineffective, Owner will promptly schedule re-inspection and re-treatment at no cost to Resident. If Resident is not fully prepared for the treatment, Resident agrees to reimburse us for our actual costs. If Resident fails to cooperate fully with any pest treatment plan and the unit is either re-infested or the initial treatment is ineffective, Resident agrees to pay all costs of all subsequent treatments, as well as the cost of treatments due to any spread of the infestation to additional units, and all of Owner’s consequential damages caused by any infestation spread due to Resident’s failure to cooperate.
9. Bed bugs are a common problem throughout society. A surge in global travel and mobility, combined with changes in pesticide use, including the banning of DDT created optimal conditions for the revival of bed bugs, which had been virtually dormant since World War II. Exterminators have treated maternity wards, five-star hotels, movie theaters, banks, private schools, apartment communities, private homes, and countless other places. Accordingly, nearly every apartment community, including this one, has or will experience some level of bed bug infestation. Owner is not liable to Resident for any damages caused by pests including, but not limited to, replacement or cleaning of personal property, medications, or medical expenses. Resident must allow Owner and Owner’s qualified inspectors or pest control agents access to the apartment at reasonable times to inspect for or treat bed bugs as allowed by law. Resident and Resident’s family members, occupants, guests, and invitees must cooperate with all written instructions distributed to Resident and not interfere with inspections or treatments for bed bugs. Owner is not responsible for any damage done to Resident’s unit or personal items during pest control inspections or treatments. After any infestation and inspection, Owner may require Resident to professionally treat any affected personal property, or to remove such property from the Premises if it cannot be effectively treated. Resident agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the Owner and Owner’s Agent from any actions, dependent on Resident's and other residents' voluntary compliance and cooperation with pest eradication efforts, and Resident's full and faithful performance of Resident's obligations set forth in this Addendum. If Resident breaches this Addendum, by failing to cooperate with Owner's pest control efforts or otherwise, Resident shall have no right to terminate Resident's Lease, and shall remain legally responsible for all sums and damages due under the Lease.

- 10. Resident represents and warrants that Resident's current and previous residences were bed bug free, that Resident's personal property does not contain any bed bugs, and that Resident is unaware of being exposed to any circumstances where bed bugs were present. Resident's current and previous residences include any apartment (including the building in which the apartment is located), home, or other dwelling Resident resided. Resident's personal property is all of Resident's personal property including but not limited to clothing, linen, and furniture.

If Resident cannot make the representations and warranties set forth above, Resident makes the following disclosures regarding Resident's exposure to bed bugs:_____

In order to successfully eradicate bed bugs and to maximize the probability of providing a bed bug free community for all residents, Resident acknowledges and agrees that the Lease and this Addendum are being entered into by Owner in reliance on Resident's representations and warranties contained in this Addendum. If such information is false or materially misleading, it shall be considered a substantial and material violation of the Lease and Owner shall have the option to terminate your right to occupancy upon three (3) days notice to quit.

11. Resident acknowledges that Owner's adoption of this Addendum, and the efforts to provide a pest free environment, does not in any way change the standard of care that Owner owes Resident under the lease. Resident further acknowledges that Owner does not guarantee or warrant a pest free environment. Resident acknowledges and agrees that Owner's ability to police, monitor, and eradicate pests is directly

- 12. Resident acknowledges that used or secondhand furniture is a primary method for the spread of bed bugs and other pests. Resident agrees to carefully inspect any used or secondhand furniture, especially bedding, acquired by Resident that is brought into the Premises. Used furniture, especially beds and mattresses, are often infested with bed bugs. Resident agrees not to acquire or bring into the Premises any used or secondhand furniture removed from the garbage or from unknown origins. Resident acknowledges that sharing vacuum cleaners is another highly possible way to spread bed bugs and roaches. Owner strongly advises Resident not to share such items with other residents.

- 13. In case of any conflict between the provisions of the Lease and this Lease Addendum, the provisions of this Lease Addendum shall govern. This Lease Addendum is incorporated into the Lease executed or renewed between the Owner and the Resident.

3. Under federal law, specifically the Controlled Substances Act (CSA), marijuana is still categorized as a Schedule I substance. This means that under federal law, the manufacture, distribution, or possession of marijuana is strictly prohibited. Because the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development is controlled by the federal government, it agrees that the manufacture, distribution, or possession of marijuana, whether prescribed for medical reasons or not, is a criminal offense and will not be protected under the fair housing laws. Therefore, landlords are not required to accommodate the manufacturing, distribution, possession or use of marijuana by a tenant for medical or recreational purposes. Disabled tenants who are registered medical marijuana users, however, should not feel discouraged to request reasonable accommodations if the need arises.

This Addendum constitutes an Addendum to the above described Lease Contract for the above described premises, and is hereby incorporated into and made a part of such Lease Contract. Where the terms or conditions found in this Addendum vary or contradict any terms or conditions found in the Lease Contract, this Addendum shall control.

3. ADDENDUM APPLICABILITY. In the event any provision in this Addendum is inconsistent with any provision(s) contained in other portions of, or attachments to, the above-mentioned Lease Contract, then the provisions of this Addendum shall control. For purposes of this Addendum, the term “premises” shall include the dwelling, all common areas, all other dwellings on the property or any common areas or other dwellings on or about other property owned by or managed by the Owner. The parties hereby amend and supplement the Lease Contract as follows:

4. CRIME/DRUG FREE HOUSING. Resident, members of the Resident’s household, Resident’s guests, and all other persons affiliated with the Resident:

A. Shall not engage in any illegal or criminal activity regardless of where such illegal or criminal activity occurs. The phrase, “illegal or criminal activity” shall include, but is not limited to, the following:

- 1. Engaging in any act intended to facilitate any type of criminal activity.
- 2. Permitting the premises to be used for, or facilitating any type of criminal activity or drug related activity, regardless of whether the individual engaging in such activity is a member of the household, or a guest.
- 3. The unlawful manufacturing, selling, using, storing, keeping, purchasing or giving of an illegal or controlled substance or paraphernalia as defined in any city, county, state or federal laws, including but not limited to the State of Colorado and/or the Federal Controlled Substances Act regardless of whether or not the offense is a misdemeanor or felony.
- 4. Violation of any federal drug laws governing the use, possession, sale, manufacturing and distribution of marijuana or marijuana concentrate, regardless of state or local laws. (So long as the use, possession, sale, manufacturing and distribution of marijuana remains a violation of federal law, violation of any such federal law shall constitute a material violation of the Lease Contract.)

- 5. Engaging in, or allowing, any behavior that is associated with drug activity, including but not limited to having excessive vehicle or foot traffic associated with Resident’s dwelling.
- 6. Any breach of the Lease Contract that otherwise jeopardizes the health, safety, and welfare of the Owner, Owner’s agents, or other Residents, or involving imminent, actual or substantial property damage.
- 7. Engaging in or committing any act that would be a violation of the Owner’s screening criteria for criminal conduct or which would have provided Owner with a basis for denying Resident’s application due to criminal conduct.
- 8. Engaging in any activity that constitutes waste, nuisance, or unlawful use.

B. Agree and acknowledge that Resident has an affirmative duty to abstain from any criminal activity and to prevent criminal activity by any other persons, including but not limited to, immediately notifying a law enforcement officer at the first sign of Resident’s knowledge of the criminal activity which constitutes any substantial violation agreed to in this Addendum or at law (collectively “substantial violation”), and cooperating with law enforcement with respect to the substantial violation. For the purpose of this Addendum, criminal activity also includes any activity or conduct by any person, which a reasonable person would conclude has the potential for escalating into or becoming criminal activity. Resident agrees that Resident’s affirmative duty extends to being responsible for the conduct and actions of all persons regardless of any culpability or knowledge on Resident’s part, that Resident’s affirmative duty extends to making all persons aware of Resident’s obligations, covenants, and duties under this Addendum, and that Resident’s duties extend to all conduct whether or not such conduct occurs in Resident’s dwelling. Resident may not assert as a defense in any eviction action against Resident based on violation of this Addendum that Resident did not know any person, occupant or guest was in violation of this Addendum.

C. AGREE THAT ANY VIOLATION OF THE ABOVE PROVISIONS CONSTITUTES A SUBSTANTIAL VIOLATION AND MATERIAL NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THE LEASE CONTRACT AND GOOD CAUSE FOR TERMINATION OF TENANCY. A single violation of any of the provisions of this Addendum shall be deemed a serious violation, and a material default, of the parties’ Lease Contract. It is understood that a single violation shall be good cause for termination of the Resident’s tenancy. Notwithstanding the foregoing comments, Owner may terminate Resident’s tenancy for any lawful reason, and by any lawful method, with or without good cause.

Resident waives any and all legal rights of any kind whatsoever to claim or insist that Landlord must first serve Resident with a demand for compliance or possession in order to initiate an eviction action against Resident for recovery of the premises. Upon any violation of this Addendum by Resident, Owner may terminate Resident’s right to occupancy without terminating the Lease Contract or Resident’s obligation to pay rent as set forth in the Lease Contract at Owner’s election. Owner’s termination of Resident’s right to occupancy shall be effective with right of eviction upon three (3) days notice to quit. Unless required by law, Owner shall not be required to serve any other notices upon Resident in order to terminate Resident’s right of possession.

Required Renters Insurance and Waiver Program Addendum

You understand that you are responsible to us for any damages sustained by us due to fire, smoke, explosion, water discharge, hazardous materials, and/or sewer backup negligently caused by you or your occupants or guests. As a condition of this Lease and for the duration of the Lease term, you must procure and maintain, at your sole cost and expense, a renters insurance policy with personal liability coverage for acts or omissions by you, your occupants, invitees and your guests in the minimum amount of $100,000.00 per occurrence. That policy must list us as an interested party with the address P.O. Box 498067 Cincinnati, OH 45249, and we must be notified of any cancellations or lapses in the policy.

Until you provide proof of adequate insurance coverage, you are automatically enrolled in our Renters Insurance Waiver Program (the "Waiver Program"). Under the Waiver Program, you will be charged a fee of $12.00 per month as rent under the Lease until the first full month following proof of adequate insurance coverage provided where you will then be removed from the Waiver Program. The Waiver Program will satisfy your insurance requirement of the lease and will absolve you of damages sustained by the property for damages above the amount of your security deposit due to fire, smoke, explosion, water discharge, and/or sewer backup negligently caused by you or your occupants, invitees or guests up to $100,000 in damages to our property. The waiver program does not, however, waive any liability on behalf of any other resident or third party for personal property damages caused by you or your occupants, invitees or guest's negligence. The Waiver Program is NOT renters insurance and PROVIDES NO INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR LOSS OF YOUR PERSONAL PROPERTY OR ANY OTHER LOSS SUFFERED BY YOU.

If your renter's insurance policy lapses, expires, is cancelled at any time during the Lease term or if you fail to provide current policy documentation upon our request, you automatically and immediately will be charged a $50.00 non-compliance fee every month you are non-compliant. This non-compliance fee will continue until you bring us proof of a current renter's insurance policy listing us as an interested party, or you enroll in the Waiver Program.

Protect Your Family From Lead in Your Home

March 2021

Are You Planning to Buy or Rent a Home Built Before 1978?

Did you know that many homes built before 1978 have lead-based paint? Lead from paint, chips, and dust can pose serious health hazards.

Read this entire brochure to learn:

- How lead gets into the body
- How lead affects health
- What you can do to protect your family
- Where to go for more information

Before renting or buying a pre-1978 home or apartment, federal law requires:

- Sellers must disclose known information on lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards before selling a house.
- Real estate sales contracts must include a specific warning statement about lead-based paint. Buyers have up to 10 days to check for lead.
- Landlords must disclose known information on lead-based paint or lead-based paint hazards before leases take effect. Leases must include a specific warning statement about lead-based paint.

If undertaking renovations, repairs, or painting (RRP) projects in your pre-1978 home or apartment:

- Read EPA's pamphlet, The Lead-Safe Certified Guide to Renovate Right, to learn about the lead-safe work practices that contractors are required to follow when working in your home (see page 12).

Simple Steps to Protect Your Family from Lead Hazards

If you think your home has lead-based paint:

- Don't try to remove lead-based paint yourself.
- Always keep painted surfaces in good condition to minimize deterioration.
- Get your home checked for lead hazards. Find a certified inspector or risk assessor at epa.gov/lead.
- Talk to your landlord about fixing surfaces with peeling or chipping paint.
- Regularly clean floors, window sills, and other surfaces.
- Take precautions to avoid exposure to lead dust when remodeling.
- When renovating, repairing, or painting, hire only EPA- or state-approved Lead-Safe certified renovation firms.
- Before buying, renting, or renovating your home, have it checked for lead-based paint.
- Consult your health care provider about testing your children for lead. Your pediatrician can check for lead with a simple blood test.
- Wash children's hands, bottles, pacifiers, and toys often.
- Make sure children eat healthy, low-fat foods high in iron, calcium, and vitamin C.
- Remove shoes or wipe soil off shoes before entering your house.

Lead Gets into the Body in Many Ways

Adults and children can get lead into their bodies if they:

- Breathe in lead dust (especially during activities such as renovations, repairs, or painting that disturb painted surfaces).
- Swallow lead dust that has settled on food, food preparation surfaces, and other places.
- Eat paint chips or soil that contains lead.

Lead is especially dangerous to children under the age of 6.

- At this age, children's brains and nervous systems are more sensitive to the damaging effects of lead.
- Children's growing bodies absorb more lead.
- Babies and young children often put their hands and other objects in their mouths. These objects can have lead dust on them.

Women of childbearing age should know that lead is dangerous to a developing fetus.

- Women with a high lead level in their system before or during pregnancy risk exposing the fetus to lead through the placenta during fetal development.

Health Effects of Lead

Lead affects the body in many ways. It is important to know that even exposure to low levels of lead can severely harm children.

In children, exposure to lead can cause:

- Nervous system and kidney damage
- Learning disabilities, attention-deficit disorder, and decreased intelligence
- Speech, language, and behavior problems
- Poor muscle coordination
- Decreased muscle and bone growth
- Hearing damage

While low-lead exposure is most common, exposure to high amounts of lead can have devastating effects on children, including seizures, unconsciousness, and in some cases, death.

Although children are especially susceptible to lead exposure, lead can be dangerous for adults, too.

In adults, exposure to lead can cause:

- Harm to a developing fetus
- Increased chance of high blood pressure during pregnancy
- Fertility problems (in men and women)
- High blood pressure
- Digestive problems
- Nerve disorders
- Memory and concentration problems
- Muscle and joint pain

Check Your Family for Lead

Get your children and home tested if you think your home has lead.

Children's blood lead levels tend to increase rapidly from 6 to 12 months of age, and tend to peak at 18 to 24 months of age.

Consult your doctor for advice on testing your children. A simple blood test can detect lead. Blood lead tests are usually recommended for:

- Children at ages 1 and 2
- Children or other family members who have been exposed to high levels of lead
- Children who should be tested under your state or local health screening plan

Your doctor can explain what the test results mean and if more testing will be needed.

Where Lead-Based Paint Is Found

In general, the older your home or childcare facility, the more likely it has lead-based paint.¹

Many homes, including private, federally-assisted, federally-owned housing, and childcare facilities built before 1978 have lead-based paint. In 1978, the federal government banned consumer uses of lead-containing paint.²

Learn how to determine if paint is lead-based paint on page 7.

Lead can be found:

- In homes and childcare facilities in the city, country, or suburbs,
- In private and public single-family homes and apartments,
- On surfaces inside and outside of the house, and
- In soil around a home. (Soil can pick up lead from exterior paint or other sources, such as past use of leaded gas in cars.)

Learn more about where lead is found at epa.gov/lead.

¹ "Lead-based paint" is currently defined by the federal government as paint with lead levels greater than or equal to 1.0 milligram per square centimeter (mg/cm²), or more than 0.5% by weight.

² "Lead-containing paint" is currently defined by the federal government as lead in new dried paint in excess of 90 parts per million (ppm) by weight.

Identifying Lead-Based Paint and Lead-Based Paint Hazards

Deteriorated lead-based paint (peeling, chipping, chalking, cracking, or damaged paint) is a hazard and needs immediate attention. Lead-based paint may also be a hazard when found on surfaces that children can chew or that get a lot of wear and tear, such as:

- On windows and window sills
- Doors and door frames
- Stairs, railings, banisters, and porches

Lead-based paint is usually not a hazard if it is in good condition and if it is not on an impact or friction surface like a window.

Lead dust can form when lead-based paint is scraped, sanded, or heated. Lead dust also forms when painted surfaces containing lead bump or rub together. Lead paint chips and dust can get on surfaces and objects that people touch. Settled lead dust can reenter the air when the home is vacuumed or swept, or when people walk through it. EPA currently defines the following levels of lead in dust as hazardous:

- 10 micrograms per square foot (µg/ft²) and higher for floors, including carpeted floors
- 100 µg/ft² and higher for interior window sills

Lead in soil can be a hazard when children play in bare soil or when people bring soil into the house on their shoes. EPA currently defines the following levels of lead in soil as hazardous:

- 400 parts per million (ppm) and higher in play areas of bare soil
- 1,200 ppm (average) and higher in bare soil in the remainder of the yard

Remember, lead from paint chips—which you can see—and lead dust—which you may not be able to see—both can be hazards.

The only way to find out if paint, dust, or soil lead hazards exist is to test for them. The next page describes how to do this.

Checking Your Home for Lead

You can get your home tested for lead in several different ways:

- A lead-based paint inspection tells you if your home has lead-based paint and where it is located. It won't tell you whether your home currently has lead hazards. A trained and certified testing professional, called a lead-based paint inspector, will conduct a paint inspection using methods, such as:
 - Portable x-ray fluorescence (XRF) machine
 - Lab tests of paint samples
- A risk assessment tells you if your home currently has any lead hazards from lead in paint, dust, or soil. It also tells you what actions to take to address any hazards. A trained and certified testing professional, called a risk assessor, will:
 - Sample paint that is deteriorated on doors, windows, floors, stairs, and walls
 - Sample dust near painted surfaces and sample bare soil in the yard
 - Get lab tests of paint, dust, and soil samples
- A combination inspection and risk assessment tells you if your home has any lead-based paint and if your home has any lead hazards, and where both are located.

Be sure to read the report provided to you after your inspection or risk assessment is completed, and ask questions about anything you do not understand.

In preparing for renovation, repair, or painting work in a pre-1978 home, Lead-Safe Certified renovators (see page 12) may:

- Take paint chip samples to determine if lead-based paint is present in the area planned for renovation and send them to an EPA-recognized lead lab for analysis. In housing receiving federal assistance, the person collecting these samples must be a certified lead-based paint inspector or risk assessor
- Use EPA-recognized tests kits to determine if lead-based paint is absent (but not in housing receiving federal assistance)
- Presume that lead-based paint is present and use lead-safe work practices

There are state and federal programs in place to ensure that testing is done safely, reliably, and effectively. Contact your state or local agency for more information, visit epa.gov/lead, or call 1-800-424-LEAD (5323) for a list of contacts in your area.³

What You Can Do Now to Protect Your Family

If you suspect that your house has lead-based paint hazards, you can take some immediate steps to reduce your family's risk:

- If you rent, notify your landlord of peeling or chipping paint.
- Keep painted surfaces clean and free of dust. Clean floors, window frames, window sills, and other surfaces weekly. Use a mop or sponge with warm water and a general all-purpose cleaner. (Remember: never mix ammonia and bleach products together because they can form a dangerous gas.)
- Carefully clean up paint chips immediately without creating dust.
- Thoroughly rinse sponges and mop heads often during cleaning of dirty or dusty areas, and again afterward.
- Wash your hands and your children's hands often, especially before they eat and before nap time and bed time.
- Keep play areas clean. Wash bottles, pacifiers, toys, and stuffed animals regularly.
- Keep children from chewing window sills or other painted surfaces, or eating soil.
- When renovating, repairing, or painting, hire only EPA- or state-approved Lead-Safe Certified renovation firms (see page 12).
- Clean or remove shoes before entering your home to avoid tracking in lead from soil.
- Make sure children eat nutritious, low-fat meals high in iron, and calcium, such as spinach and dairy products. Children with good diets absorb less lead.

Reducing Lead Hazards

Disturbing lead-based paint or removing lead improperly can increase the hazard to your family by spreading even more lead dust around the house.

- In addition to day-to-day cleaning and good nutrition, you can temporarily reduce lead-based paint hazards by taking actions, such as repairing damaged painted surfaces and planting grass to cover lead-contaminated soil. These actions are not permanent solutions and will need ongoing attention.
- You can minimize exposure to lead when renovating, repairing, or painting by hiring an EPA- or state-certified renovator who is trained in the use of lead-safe work practices. If you are a do-it-yourselfer, learn how to use lead-safe work practices in your home.
- To remove lead hazards permanently, you should hire a certified lead abatement contractor. Abatement (or permanent hazard elimination) methods include removing, sealing, or enclosing lead-based paint with special materials. Just painting over the hazard with regular paint is not permanent control.

Always use a certified contractor who is trained to address lead hazards safely.

- Hire a Lead-Safe Certified firm (see page 12) to perform renovation, repair, or painting (RRP) projects that disturb painted surfaces.
- To correct lead hazards permanently, hire a certified lead abatement contractor. This will ensure your contractor knows how to work safely and has the proper equipment to clean up thoroughly.

Certified contractors will employ qualified workers and follow strict safety rules as set by their state or by the federal government.

If your home has had lead abatement work done or if the housing is receiving federal assistance, once the work is completed, dust cleanup activities must be conducted until clearance testing indicates that lead dust levels are below the following levels:

- 10 micrograms per square foot ($\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$) for floors, including carpeted floors
- 100 $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ for interior windows sills
- 400 $\mu\text{g}/\text{ft}^2$ for window troughs

Abatement is designed to permanently eliminate lead-based paint hazards. However, lead dust can be reintroduced into an abated area.

- Use a HEPA vacuum on all furniture and other items returned to the area, to reduce the potential for reintroducing lead dust.
- Regularly clean floors, window sills, troughs, and other hard surfaces with a damp cloth or sponge and a general all-purpose cleaner.

Please see page 9 for more information on steps you can take to protect your home after the abatement. For help in locating certified lead abatement professionals in your area, call your state or local agency (see pages 15 and 16), epa.gov/lead, or call 1-800-424-LEAD.

Renovating, Repairing or Painting a Home with Lead-Based Paint

If you hire a contractor to conduct renovation, repair, or painting (RRP) projects in your pre-1978 home or childcare facility (such as pre-school and kindergarten), your contractor must:

- Be a Lead-Safe Certified firm approved by EPA or an EPA-authorized state program
- Use qualified trained individuals (Lead-Safe Certified renovators) who follow specific lead-safe work practices to prevent lead contamination
- Provide a copy of EPA's lead hazard information document, The Lead-Safe Certified Guide to Renovate Right

RRP contractors working in pre-1978 homes and childcare facilities must follow lead-safe work practices that:

- Contain the work area. The area must be contained so that dust and debris do not escape from the work area. Warning signs must be put up, and plastic or other impermeable material and tape must be used.
- Avoid renovation methods that generate large amounts of lead-contaminated dust. Some methods generate so much lead-contaminated dust that their use is prohibited. They are:
 - Open-flame burning or torching
 - Sanding, grinding, planing, needle gunning, or blasting with power tools and equipment not equipped with a shroud and HEPA vacuum attachment
 - Using a heat gun at temperatures greater than 1100°F
- Clean up thoroughly. The work area should be cleaned up daily. When all the work is done, the area must be cleaned up using special cleaning methods.
- Dispose of waste properly. Collect and seal waste in a heavy duty bag or sheeting. When transported, ensure that waste is contained to prevent release of dust and debris.

To learn more about EPA's requirements for RRP projects, visit epa.gov/getleadsafe, or read The Lead-Safe Certified Guide to Renovate Right.

Other Sources of Lead

Lead in Drinking Water

The most common sources of lead in drinking water are lead pipes, faucets, and fixtures.

Lead pipes are more likely to be found in older cities and homes built before 1986.

You can't smell or taste lead in drinking water.

To find out for certain if you have lead in drinking water, have your water tested.

Remember older homes with a private well can also have plumbing materials that contain lead.

Important Steps You Can Take to Reduce Lead in Drinking Water

- Use only cold water for drinking, cooking and making baby formula. Remember, boiling water does not remove lead from water.
- Before drinking, flush your home's pipes by running the tap, taking a shower, doing laundry, or doing a load of dishes.
- Regularly clean your faucet's screen (also known as an aerator).
- If you use a filter certified to remove lead, don't forget to read the directions to learn when to change the cartridge. Using a filter after it has expired can make it less effective at removing lead.

Contact your water company to determine if the pipe that connects your home to the water main (called a service line) is made from lead. Your area's water company can also provide information about the lead levels in your system's drinking water.

For more information about lead in drinking water, please contact EPA's Safe Drinking Water Hotline at 1-800-426-4791. If you have other questions about lead poisoning prevention, call 1-800-424-LEAD.*

Call your local health department or water company to find out about testing your water, or visit epa.gov/safewater for EPA's lead in drinking water information. Some states or utilities offer programs to pay for water testing for residents. Contact your state or local water company to learn more.

- Lead smelters or other industries that release lead into the air.
- Your job. If you work with lead, you could bring it home on your body or clothes. Shower and change clothes before coming home. Launder your work clothes separately from the rest of your family's clothes.
- Hobbies that use lead, such as making pottery or stained glass, or refinishing furniture. Call your local health department for information about hobbies that may use lead.
- Old toys and furniture may have been painted with lead-containing paint. Older toys and other children's products may have parts that contain lead.⁴
- Food and liquids cooked or stored in lead crystal or lead-glazed pottery or porcelain may contain lead.
- Folk remedies, such as "greta" and "azarcon," used to treat an upset stomach.

⁴ In 1978, the federal government banned toys, other children's products, and furniture with lead-containing paint. In 2008, the federal government banned lead in most children's products. The federal government currently bans lead in excess of 100 ppm by weight in most children's products.

IMPORTANT!

Lead From Paint, Dust, and Soil in and Around Your Home Can Be Dangerous if Not Managed Properly

- Children under 6 years old are most at risk for lead poisoning in your home.
- Lead exposure can harm young children and babies even before they are born.
- Homes, schools, and child care facilities built before 1978 are likely to contain lead-based paint.
- Even children who seem healthy may have dangerous levels of lead in their bodies.
- Disturbing surfaces with lead-based paint or removing lead-based paint improperly can increase the danger to your family.
- People can get lead into their bodies by breathing or swallowing lead dust, or by eating soil or paint chips containing lead.
- People have many options for reducing lead hazards. Generally, lead-based paint that is in good condition is not a hazard (see page 10).
